Board Objects To Political Control

The long expected effort to abolish existing school districts in favor of larger districts, all to be dominated in all probability by a State Board of Education has now taken definite form.

Bills leading to this so-called reform in the public school system are now being presented in the State Legislature and the battle will soon be on as to whether or not our schools are to be run by boards of our own choosing or by some sort of politically motivated system which will rob us of our rights to choose our own teachers, spend our own money the way our community wants it spent, etc. This move to do away with the local school boards is just one more effort on the part of a would be political distasteful to abolish local control of local affairs.

This effort has been going on in certain powerful political circles for years. These powers would do away with all form of local government and control, and put the entire machinery under a centralized control.

Villages, local police departments, township and various other local governmental units have fought some of these efforts for years, and if we people of the rural districts desire to continue to run our own business, we will again have to meet this menace with a determined battle before the State Legislature.

The Arlington Heights Township High School Board of Education, at its meeting last week, took aggressive action along this line and sent copies of the following resolution to the representatives of this district in the State Legislature.

Whereas, the definite information has reached the members of the Board of Education of High School District No. 214, that a movement is being fostered by politically dominated groups to abolish the existing school districts, thereby depriving the voters of such districts of the right to determine the personnel of their faculty as well as the control of financing, and

Whereas, our County Superintendent has requested an expression from the Board concerning Senate Bill No. 1, and

Resolved, that we believe that this is the first step calculated to overthrow the existing status of school districts,

Resolved, that we consider our public school system a sacred trust which we shall defend against all interference from job hungry politicians who are only too eager to sacrifice future America to satisfy their personal whims, be it further

Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be made a part of the minutes of our meeting held February 9, 1937; be it further

Resolved, that copies of this resolution be submitted to:

County Supt. of Schools, Noble J. Puffer.

State Senator Baumrucker.

State Representatives Van der Vries, Foster, and McGrath.

And to the local newspapers.

Flood Relief Dance

And Bank Opening, Two Big Events Saturday

There will be two big events Saturday, both of prime importance. The opening of the new bank has been heralded long and far and the Arlington Heights Benefit club, which is sponsoring a flood relief dance are working equally as hard for the success of that event as some of the other people are for the new bank.

The entire proceeds of the flood relief dance will be given to the Red Cross which is expected to swell the total of the local fund to unexpected heights. That amount will probably be a record that will be looked backward with pride twenty years hence. Arlington Heights always does things that way.

The tickets are only 25 cents and will give an evening of pleasure. However, of greater importance is the fact that the admission charged for this dance in Meier's Park, Arlington Heights, will help to provide food, shelter and clothing to the thousands who are in desperate need in the flood area.

Gilbert's Harmony Boys, five piece orchestra will furnish the music. Refreshments of all kinds and a jolly good time promised to all. Tickets on sale at Prosser's Barber Shop, Stein's Candy Shop, Arlington Recreation Parlors, Sieburg Drug Co., Frank Katze's Nut Store, 8 S. Duntun, White Wave Service Station, Chestnut and Rand roads, State and Rand Service Station. Look for signs in store windows.

Perhaps "New Deal" Will Retire Alderman George Klehm

Alderman George Klehm is in a quandry these days. He's simply up in the air and doesn't know just what to do about it.

The cause of it all is President Roosevelt's recent ultimatum that Supreme Court Justices should be retired at the age of 70 or should have alternates, assistants or some such thing if they insist in sticking on the job after they become that old.

George admits that he has already attained the ripe old age of seventy-five but he doesn't feel that he is decrepit or mentally incompetent or any such thing. Also, George has been on the job as an Arlington Heights Alderman these — Oh! Ask George how many years; we've lost all track of them.

So now the question which confronts Alderman Klehm, is shall he run again for alderman or shall he not. And if he does run again and is reelected and the President has his way, will the Arlington Heights board follow the lead of the President and insist upon some kind of an assistant alderman occupying half of his aldermanic chair?

So George is all upset these days, since all the whoopdoo has been going on about the ability of men seventy or seventy-five years old. But there is one thing that we will bet on, and that is that George will never consent to share half of his aldermanic chair with any assistant or deputy alderman.

If you have any suggestions to make on the subject, give the alderman the benefit of your advice. Maybe he'll take it and then again maybe he won't.

H. J. Byrd Is Reappointed

Homer J. Byrd has been recently reappointed as Supt. of the Department of Registration and Education for the State of Illinois and his appointment was unanimously confirmed by the state senate.

Mr. Byrd has under his jurisdiction the registration of all teachers even to the Normal schools, blacksmiths, plumbers, barbers and all other trades that require registration. His field is the entire state of Illinois and his department is one of the most important in the State government.

We hope to be able at some future time to give our readers an intimate picture of Mr. Byrd's department and the vast work which it performs. Mr. Byrd has now been appointed for his second term.

He was one of Governor Horner's most loyal supporters during the primary campaign and the ensuing election and served as the governor's campaign manager in rural Cook county.

Stonegate Robberies May Be Near Solution

With leads that have been secured by the Arlington Heights police department and the state's attorney office, a solution of the Stonegate robberies may be near.

Tony Garratino, 715 Blackhawk Ct. bragged recently to John McConnell of his knowledge of Stonegate, and to prove his statements, drew a sketch of the streets in that subdivision in their relation to the business section of Arlington Heights.

In the belief that Edward Schroeder, 827 Van Buren street, Chicago, was implicated in the robberies with Garratino, the latter is to be questioned this week. Schroeder was recently arrested by Elgin police and is now serving a 90 days sentence in the Cook county jail.

Patty Mulligan To Sing Over WLS

In answer to an avalanche of inquiries as to when Patty Mulligan, 612 N. Duntun avenue will sing over the radio—she will sing on WLS Saturday morning, February 27, for the first time and occasionally after that.

Patty did a song and dance each of the three nights of the home talent show here and on the last night had the honor of being personally congratulated by the General Manager of WLS, Prairie Farm Station. He offered to put her on Jolly Joe's program, as a preparation for something bigger later on. So far she has had neither experience or training.

Examination For Postal Position

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an open competitive examination for substitute clerk and substitute city carrier to be held in Arlington Heights, Illinois. Applicants will be eligible for appointment only in the office for which examined.

Applications must be on file with the Manager of the Seventh U. S. Civil Service District, Chicago, Illinois not later than March 1, 1937. Full information may be obtained from Rose H. Paton, secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners, at the post office in this city.

Heights Holds Greatest Sale Since 1929

Showing a unanimity in their support and confidence in the new Arlington Heights National Bank, Arlington Heights merchants have launched a three-day sale this week, replete with money saving bargains and services. From the standpoint of the number of merchants offering goods and services, more than 40, it is the greatest mass effort of the Arlington Heights business community to reach its public since the balmy days of 1929, and coming in step with the opening of the new bank it surely presages a bigger and brighter future for the entire community.

In scanning the advertising columns of this newspaper this week, the public will notice that Arlington Heights merchants are well qualified to answer every need. Goods are of a quality and variety that cater to the best tastes of the community, service compares with the best anywhere and prices are in line with those of the general retail market throughout Chicago and. You are able to buy practically anything you want in Arlington Heights.

The opening of the new bank offers a new convenience for trading in Arlington Heights, especially to the people in the rural districts and the surrounding small communities. Recognizing this and the fact that the Arlington business community is up to date and up to the minute, it is expected that many will again make this community their regular shopping center.

All the food stores advertisements this week are featuring extra values in meats, groceries and bakery goods. Many stores are running special discount sales on clothing, shoes, jewelry, paint, hardware, cleaning, notions, etc. Still others are taking this opportunity to make their spring announcements of new styles and fashions. All and all the business community has shown that it is wide awake and patrons are asked to keep in mind the three day sale of Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Auxiliary To Hold Card Party

A benefit card party, sponsored by the Auxiliary of Merle Guild Post, American Legion, will be held February 24, at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Neubauer, 903 N. Vail street. Mrs. Neubauer, auxiliary president and Mrs. Fannie May, will be hostesses. Table prizes will be awarded and refreshments served.

Auxiliary members were guests Tuesday of Mrs. Doris Palmer, hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon of the Gleaners Circle at the Methodist church. A regular social meeting of the Auxiliary was held in the church parlors following the luncheon.

Alderman Schaefer Leaves for Florida

Alderman Schaefer and his wife will leave Wednesday on an automobile trip to St. Petersburg and the Florida west coast. They will be accompanied by Adolph Meyer as chauffeur.

The Alderman may run into Mayor Elentz, who should be coming up the west coast about that time, but the Mayor's friends think that its doubtful that he will see the alderman, for he will probably whiz by so fast he won't recognize his Arlington colleague.

Rumor has it that other members of the Arlington Heights official family are contemplating trips to Florida.

Seek Children's Lost Pets

M. L. Huffman of Arlington Heights is offering a $5.00 reward each for the return or information leading to the return of two cats which were favorite pets of the Huffman children. A grey and white kitten named "Grayball" vanished from the Huffman home about four months ago. An orange Angora cat named "Sandy" has just recently disappeared. Anyone who can locate the missing pets will not only earn a substantial reward, but will also receive the everlasting gratitude of the children, who are all broken up over the loss of their pets.

Police Do Double Duty

Chief Skoog of the Arlington Heights police is off duty for a few days on account of the death of his mother. Officer Heideman is on the sick list so the burden of policing the Village falls upon officers Firnbach and Luehring, who are on double duty this week.

Relief Stations Busy

There are a lot of families on relief, who are glad that this is an open winter and easier on the coal pile than that old rip snorter of a winter that we had a year ago. Despite continual reports of improved employment conditions, the relief rolls in the country townships continue to grow.

Just about the time that a township supervisor gets a few people off of the relief rolls, some other people run out of temporary employment and are forced back onto the relief lists.

Both Supervisors Charles Grandt of Wheeling township and John Meyer of Palatine township report that the relief rolls are continually increasing. Both townships are receiving far below their requirements from the state and both have plans on the fire to sell some anticipation warrants. These warrants will be issued against the 30 cents per $100 valuation relief tax which was authorized last year at town meetings in both towns.

Mr. Meyer reports 60 families on relief in Palatine township, while Mr. Grandt has 156 families on his list in the much more heavily populated town of Wheeling.

When we dropped into Mr. Grandt's office the other day we found him busy answering phone calls. First came a report of a case to be investigated. Then he had no more than hung up the receiver when, bang, the phone rang again and there came the report of the case of a man who was too proud to sign a relief application and whose family was actually suffering for want of food. This man had a little work in Chicago, but received such little pay that his wife and family were actually suffering from the lack of food.

Mr. Grandt gave assurances of an immediate trip to see this family and again hung up the phone. The receiver was no more than on the hook when clang, went the old bell again. This time it was an eye specialist who called up to confer with the supervisor regarding the kind of glasses to be furnished to one of the relief clients.

And about the time that Mr. Grandt hung up this time the reporter decided it was about time to be on his way and give Charlie a chance to get out and take care of all this urgent business that was pouring in over the phone. And that's the way it goes around these relief offices.

Anyone who thinks that these relief administrators have a soft snap and that their path is a bed of roses should try the job once and see the amount of work they really do and listen to the grief and tales of suffering and misfortune which they listen to week after week and month after month. This reporter happens to know, he's been there.

Utility Sales Tax Is Knocked Out

The recent ruling of the Illinois Supreme Court which knocked out the 3% sales tax on public utility bills will mean that Arlington Heights water users will have refunds coming amounting to about $1,050.

Prior to last May approximately $600 was paid under protest by the village on this tax. Since May about $450 has been held in a separate fund pending the result of court action on the utility tax.

So if Arlington Heights gets back the $600 paid under protest and adds the $450 in the special fund to it each water consumer will have a credit of a few cents on some future water bill.

The utility sales tax was knocked out because certain users of a utility were exempted in the act. The present Legislature will probably pass a new bill that will include everyone and the 3% utility sales tax will go back on through an act that will be hole proof and that will stick. Meantime we all have a few cents credit coming.

Palatine has followed the same procedure as Arlington Heights and Palatine people will also have a few cents credit coming when the matter is finally adjusted.

Wrecks Post, Waits 2 Hours For Police

Another Stonegate lamp post has gone by the wayside. Some autoist crashed into it and put both the lamp post and his car out of commission.

The damage to the lamp post will probably cost the autoist $75 or so and he is reported to have obligingly waited around for a couple of hours for some one to collect the damages, but when no one showed up he had his wrecked car hauled away.

But he will no doubt have an opportunity to pay for the damage, as the local detective bureau is on the trail.

Makes Left Turn Too Soon Charles Hawkins of Antioch, who came over to the Antioch-Arlington basketball game Tuesday night, got into an auto smash up when his car and that of a Mrs. Grismer of Cicero, collided at Vail street and the Northwest Highway. The cars sustained some slight damage.

Announcement

Four and a half years ago Arlington Heights found itself without a bank. Recognizing at that time the need of a financial service to the community we established our Currency Exchange.

We installed bullet proof equipment and extended the currency and check service to include collection of interest coupons, mortgages, bonds, and many of the other activities usually performed by banks. In fact to a great many people the services provided by us took the place of a bank. We are happy that we were able to provide such a service when it was so greatly needed.

Today, we have financial connections and are otherwise equipped for this class of business and we will continue such service in the future.

Our acquaintance with you and your neighbor and our knowledge of local conditions and of the financial market enables us to advise you authoritatively on matters of that nature. We are ready for personal consultation at any time and will be most happy to serve you.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

It was the greatest thing that had ever happened to Palatine up to that time, Saturday, Sept. 16, 1911, over twenty-five years ago. It was "Palatine Day" at Deer Grove and the day that they ran the first train over what later became the old P. L. Z. & W. railway. It was the culmination of the first big promotion in Palatine, our first taste of high pressure promotion campaigns with its appeal to local pride and local pocketbooks. And what a day that was over twenty-five years ago.

For weeks the Palatine Commercial club had been working overtime in preparing for the big event. There was to be big gun speakers, a concert by the Palatine band, a ball game between the married men of Palatine and Lake Zurich. All kinds of races and games and a grand display of fireworks in the evening.

But the one big feature of the whole day was to be the first train ever run over the new local railroad.

Well, it turned out to be a great day, the weatherman did his stuff and although it took until after 2 p. m. of the big day to complete the track to Deer Grove, and although 36 hours before time for the first train to leave there was no engine and no cars, a last minute purchase of an engine from the C. & N. W. railroad and the renting of a passenger coach or two after much persuasion from the North Western finally solved the problem and at last, on Saturday afternoon something after two o'clock, engineer

Merle Young whistled the starting warning. Conductor Henry Langrath called "All aboard." Secretary Orvis climbed into the cab, president C. H. Patten wore a broad and happy smile and with a train loaded to the roof the first train on the new railroad pulled out for the big celebration. And the next week double column flowing headlines told the story of Palatine's greatest day. Hon. Wm. E. Mason and Judge Charles S. Cutting were the speakers of the day, Palatine won the ball game, there were over 2,000 enthusiastic persons on hand to help celebrate and the whole day was topped off with a grand display of fireworks in the evening.

It was one of Palatine's greatest days. We have had many others since. We have grown sadder and wiser as the years roll on, but still we haven't lost the exuberance that comes with some new promotion that looks like a good thing for the town and we're still ready to dust off the flaming headlines, get out the band, and wave the flags of hope and progress for the old home town just as we did twenty-five years ago.

Judge Charles S. Cutting, one of Palatine's greatest citizens said in his speech that day "When a united community puts its shoulder to an enterprise, it is always bound to accomplish something."

Well, we sure gave the old P. L. Z. & W. a good push and lots of things since then. Step up gentlemen, who has got something worth while for us to shove along now?

Pioneer Palatine Couple Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wittenburg celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday with a quiet family gathering. Relatives and friends gathered at the Wittenburg home to congratulate this pioneer Palatine family on the happy occasion. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kiehl, Mrs. Martha Kiehl, Mrs. Wm. Voelker and Mr. Bill Koch of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. King of Barrington; and a host of friends and relatives from Palatine. Everybody was sorry that Henry Schroeder did not speed up his recovery enough to be with them, as a party is never complete without Henry.

The bride and groom received many lovely gifts and flowers and a delicious dinner was served with a beautiful wedding cake decorating the center of the table.

The evening was spent in dancing, with Mr. King furnishing the music on his accordion, playing quadrilles and all the old fashioned dances. We were all sorry the bride was not feeling so well and could not take part in the dancing, but the bridegroom surprised everyone with his pep and grace in dancing and proved that the first 50 years of married life aren't so bad after all.

This couple has seen many changes during the last fifty years and Mr. Wittenburg in recalling some of the old days, the other day, smiled at what he no doubt thinks are some of the follies of the present. He recalled that back fifty years or so ago, when he and his wife started farming on the old M. L. Pinney farm, the snow blockades used to last for several days at a time and that it was every farmer for himself when it came to getting to town. There were no state and county plows to start opening the roads the minute a snow storm started and there were no fine paved roads in those days.

Going without tobacco for three or four days because you couldn't get to town to a store, was one of the hardships "Bill" encountered in those old days. But when spring once started to open up it stayed with us those days "Bill" says and that the farmers used to look for the arrival of spring and the start of spring work in March.

Many and interesting are the memories of the old days that are recalled by this pioneer couple and their many friends wish them many more happy years together.

Good Fishing At Lake Zurich

Many fishermen have missed a good thing this year by not trying Lake Zurich for a fishing through the ice fishing trip. A whole lot of fishing fans, however, have tried out the ice fishing stunt this year and have made some fine catches. The fishing through the ice has been so good at Lake Zurich this winter that Village Clerk, Walter Prehn reports that he has already sold over 100 fishing licenses for 1937. And as the word gets out as to the good catches that are being made, many more fishing fans will no doubt get the fever before the winter is over and try their luck.

Property To Be Sold For Taxes

Tax payers of Cook county who have not paid their 1934 taxes received registered letters Saturday notifying them that in ten days their property would be sold for taxes and urging them to make payment before the ten day limit is up.

County Collector Horace G. Lindheimer says in his letter that the tax penalties are imposed by law and there is nothing further that he can do but to follow the law as set forth by the Legislature of the state.

In the event that there are no buyers when the property goes to sale for the unpaid 1934 taxes it becomes "forfeited" and to redeem the property there are extra "forfeiture" charges and costs that must be paid by the property owner.

There is already interest and costs on all unpaid 1934 tax bills, the interest on the 1st installment being 16% and on the second 12%. This is at the rate of 1% per month since the penalty dates of the two installments. There is also an advertising cost of about 50 cents per parcel of land added to each bill.

All property owners who are behind in their 1934 taxes should heed the letter from the county collector and pay up before the ten day limit if possible, in order to avoid the "forfeiture" charges.

Contract Let For Model Dairy Barn

Mr. C. D. De Barry, who has established a model Guernsey dairy farm on the old Popo place, has just let the contract for an up-to-date dairy barn to Walter Renack, Palatine contractor. The barn will be 104 feet by 36 feet with an L. 36 feet long.

This barn will be a model in all things pertaining to a dairy barn and will be used to house the high grade herd which Mr. De Barry has built up on his farm.

The new dairy barn will be the last word in modern dairy housing and will make the De Barry farm a show place in this locality.

Village Flushes Water Mains

The Village water department is asking the water users not to get excited if they find their water a little riled up in the mornings.

The Village is making a systematic flush of the entire water system in order to give the whole system a good cleaning out.

The work is being done at night and the water in the localities affected, may be a little riled up in the morning.

Chicago. The hospitable hostess, the genial guests and all made up a happy company and an old-fashioned good time.

February 23, the Lions club will hold a victory dinner over the new bank.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bunn went to Colfax, Illinois, to attend the funeral of Mr. Bunn's sister, Mrs. Eva Gilbert, whose home was in Colfax.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Heinrich were called to Iowa by the death of her father, Mr. Emil Leckland, who died in his home in Iowa, last week.

Miss K. J. Kealy has gone into Chicago to stay for a while with friends.

Mrs. Charles Scherf received word from relatives in California, that her mother passed away Saturday morning at her home. Mrs. Wilms had been for a long time an incurable sufferer, and her going was a blessed relief. Mrs. Scherf spent some time with her mother last summer, when she was not so helplessly ill and she is now glad of the memory of those days. She has our true sympathy and we know she is glad of her mother's blessed release.

The Valentines all wore a pretty frosting of snow Sunday morning. Did you get yours?

Mr. George E. Peterson returned home last week from a two week's business trip up Minneapolis way. He found it an interesting territory, beside the weather conditions he encountered.

Friends in Arlington Heights received word from the Robert Peters, who have been touring south. At the time of sending their message home, they were in Tennessee. The weather was delightful and they were enjoying their trip.

The Coosa club held their meeting Thursday last week with Miss Eleanor Redeker. Her mother, Mrs. Fred Redeker, is not in robust health, suffering from the necessity of walking with a cane. Yet she always is hospitable in receiving her daughter's guests.

Sunday evening this week, the 14th, Miss Dorothy Helm entertained a company or club of young friends. Most of the club membership from Chicago. It was a happy affair, a choice dinner, such as one is sure to enjoy in the Helm home. The decorations were in honor of good Saint Valentine, as a guess, I'll warrant there were real Valentines in that happy company.

The Dorcas Aid of St. Peter's church are certainly busy with aid "As their hands findeth to do." They served dinner to the preachers and teachers of the Northern District conference, which convened here last Friday. They are also to serve dinner to the Lions club—yes, a real dinner to which the Lions are expecting on planning for a large company, as this company have sponsored the new bank, which is to be opened in Arlington Heights on that date.

Miss Bessie Allen has gone to visit her friend, Mrs. Millard Elvers, nee Gertrude Heidorn, at Saeboyan, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Otto Koehnke of North State Road entertained a group of ladies in her home Friday afternoon last week to a social time, a luncheon and merry games for the benefit of the Altar Guild of St. Peter's church.

Thursday last week, a number of family relatives of Richard Lorenzen attended his funeral held in a chapel in the city. The following were of those who went, the daughters of H. G. Lorenzen, Max Lorenzen, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lorenzen and daughter, Mrs. Charles Lorenzen and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lorenzen, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Johnson and daughters and Richard's sister, Mrs. Huldah Beth from Michigan.

Dr. Howard Dunn and Dr. E. W. Bauman, attended the alumni banquet of the Chicago Dental College held Sunday in the city. One of the happy occasions of old time friends getting together and no teeth to pull unless the teeth from the sharpest joker in their midst.

The bakery sale held last Saturday by the Woman's club for the Red Cross, was a grand success, resulting in the sum of $51 for the Red Cross benefit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mueller and Mr. and Mrs. John Gross were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Mutter in their lovely new home at Nantawee, Indiana. No snow or flood on the way, a safe pleasant drive and a delightful visit.

Mrs. H. A. Helm and daughter, Miss Dorothy will entertain the combined groups of the Methodist Missionary societies in their home Wednesday this week.

Little Richard Ackley has been shut in for over a week with a painful throat trouble. Jamie and the other lads of his group must miss him.

The Chicago Dental association holds a four day's session this week in Chicago. Our home dentists, Howard G. Dunn and Edwin W. Bauman are members of the association and plan to attend.

Mrs. H. E. Franke has been enjoying a visit from her niece from Cincinnati, recently.

Mrs. Harold Fitzpatrick, who had been anticipating the joy of a visit to the west coast and a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffstetter, was disappointed in finding the sunshine and flower boast of that region a disappointment as the weather was unkind and she had an attack of flu, which put her to bed. The joy of seeing her parents was all right, but the roses on her cake were a bank of iceles.

Mr. Theodore Militzer, who never fails to share his store of musical knowledge with the rest of us, gave a rare musical treat in his home Sunday afternoon. About forty guests were present. The host gave a most informing sketch of the classic composers, Schubert, Beethoven and Liszt; also giving piano selections from each of these classic composers. A rare musical treat. This was the initial number of a series to be given by the music club. The object being to import and cultivate a taste and understanding of all that the highest in music means.

Mrs. James Beaumont is planning a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Weise in her Indianapolis home. Mr. Weise's business interests require him to spend some time in Louisville. We are glad for Mrs. Beaumont to have this change from the dreary days she has been spending separated from her daughter.

The Presbyterian Missionary meeting held in the home of Mrs. H. C. Cleveland Friday last week was a helpful interesting service. It was helpful that Miss Kealy was able to be present and conduct the devotional exercise. Mrs. E. A. Elfeld and Mrs. McWharther had the lead in the musical part. This was termed a day of prayer for missions. While there were several earnest audible prayers, we are sure sincere also were the inaudible heart prayers for missions. The ever helpful hostess is surely lending her aid.

The friends, some old life long friends of Mrs. Huldah Lorenzen-Beth, were glad to have her present. Our Huldah is as ever carrying on earnest Christian work in church and Sunday school.

Mrs. Cleveland is surely doing her part in whatever her hand findeth to do, doing it with her might.

Miss Katherine J. Kealey, 205 N. Duntan avenue and Miss Millie C. Johnson, 736 N. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, were among visitors to the eight-day Moody Centenary Celebration held January 31 to February 7, in Chicago under auspices of the Moody Bible Institute.

Earl R. Woll of Camp Skokie Valley spent Saturday and Sunday with his father, Herman Woll and Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler and family.

Mrs. Fannie White, the wife of Barber White, will celebrate her 80th birthday Friday, February 19, at her home, 17 S. Duntan avenue. Mrs. White has been a shut-in for the past year. It was always a pleasure to her in the past years, to visit her friends in Chicago, whose association made the passing of time a pleasure and a joy and happiness in one's declining years.

The Reverend and Mrs. J. R. Kalwitz left Sunday afternoon for Ripon, Wisconsin, where they will attend the funeral services of the father of Mrs. J. R. Kalwitz, Mr. William F. Radke, which will be held on Tuesday, February 16, in the First Evangelical Lutheran church. Mr. Radke, who was in good health, died very suddenly of a heart attack.

Last Sunday, Valentine's day, Mrs. Paul Williams, who has been confined to her home since December 5, because of a severe accident, was surprised in her home by the Junior department of the Presbyterian Sunday school. They presented themselves as a Valentine of good wishes. Songs were sung and a treat of popcorn enjoyed. In this love teachers and children radiated a loving Christian spirit.

There has just been organized in Arlington Heights a Hawaiian Guitar orchestra. The twelve members met February 13 to elect officers which are as follows: President, Norman Beebe; vice president, Robert Helfers; secretary, Wilbert Engelking; publicity editor, Bernice Bemus. This orchestra has been organized to play for entertainments. Anyone wishing to join is cordially invited.

Chicago Daily News

Sport Writer To Address Men's Club

The popularity of the Baseball Night program of the Presbyterian Men's club Friday evening, February 19, is bringing advance reservations exceeding the expectations of Irving Tesch, chairman of the program committee and secretary of the Men's club.

John P. Carmichael, feature sports writer of the Chicago Daily News is to give the main address, which will be followed by the official American League Baseball sound movie, "Heads Up Baseball."

Because of the wide interest being shown, it has been decided to exhibit the movie in the gymnasium of the Presbyterian church after the dinner and open it to the boys and young men of the community, who are unable to attend the dinner. A charge of ten cents will be made and doors will be open at 8:30. The high school band, under the direction of Don Costain, will play before the showing of the picture.

All men of the community are urged to attend the dinner if possible which includes reserved seats for the movie. Reservations must be made by Thursday night by calling Mr. Tesch at 574-R or Wm. Groves at 562-R.

It's Nothing Doing In Mount Prospect

Editorials appearing in this week Mt. Prospect Review.

Spring cometh—it's just around the bend—and with it, election time. Yes—and a very special election time this year—for are not a village president, clerk, and six trustees to be elected? And yet—nary a hat has been definitely thrown in the political ring.

For the first time in years all eight electoral offices of the Village—those of President, (Mayor), Village Clerk, and six Trustees (Aldermen), will be open for balloting. Formerly each year we elected a President, Clerk and three alternating trustees, each to serve a year, but under the new law, each electoral office is for a two-year term.

No doubt some thought has been given to the coming election, as evidenced by the rumors that have been current in the Village during the past few weeks—but to date, at least as far as we can learn, no definite action has been taken. "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country"—or party. Those with political aspirations or the realization of civic duty, should come to the fore now and declare themselves so the people may consider the issues in due deliberation and decide their course before the last minute.

In our opinion our Village will pass through a crucial period in the next two years. Mount Prospect will inevitably grow in size and increase in population. To what extent and in what nature, will be largely dependent on the governing body of the Village and its tendencies. Our Village Board should be composed of level-headed, far-seeing representatives, carefully progressive, and imbued with a desire to see our town grow vigorously, healthfully and beautifully.

A Planning Commission

Appropos the coming building boom in this country, which has already started and will greatly increase in 1937 it seems advisable that Mount Prospect should have a Planning Commission.

Recently a step in the right direction was made when the Board of Appeals was revived, but we also need a body of competent men to plan for the future. True—most of our Village is laid out, but we must plan for the future if Mount Prospect is to continue to be referred to as "that pretty town on Northwest Highway."

What more could we ask for in the way of a reference from outsiders than "that pretty town, etc." What better goal than to continue to justify and maintain that reference? But it will take planning and supervision, foresight and initiative. We have the ability—why not the means?

Orange Trees Guarded

Americans have seen the orange trees which grow in the palace gardens at Versailles without being aware of their history or the pains-taking care with which they are preserved. There are approximately 1,200 of the trees, each growing in its own wooden pot. Many of them are said to date back to the time of Louis XIV. They are guarded with the most zealous care. At the first sign of cold they are all taken indoors. Twice a year they receive a special diet of ox blood and water. At regular intervals the specially matured loam in which they grow is changed completely.

Scouts Pay Homage To Lincoln Before His Statue

Fifteen Boy Scouts from Arlington Heights, eight from Palatine and eight from Mt. Prospect joined a group of over one hundred and fifty scouts from other communities in the Northwest Suburban Council in observing Lincoln's birthday last Friday in a rather unusual and inspiring way.

Three large United Motor Coach busses deposited the delegations from Barrington, Palatine, Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Wheeling and Niles Center, directly in front of the majestic statue by St. Gaudin in Lincoln Park, Chicago.

As the Scouts gathered around the replica of the Great Emancipator, a short but impressive rededication program was presented. While seven Chicago newspapers clicked their cameras, the Scouts united in repeating the Scout Oath, Laws and the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag. Eagle Scout John Harpham of Troop 11, Park Ridge, then placed a wreath on the statue in behalf of the group while Tom Schuetz of Troop 2 of Park Ridge and Bob Jorgenson of Troop 11, Park Ridge played a drum and bugle duet.

Dr. T. Harry Kelly, the new pastor of the First Methodist church in Park Ridge then gave an interesting talk on "How Lincoln Exemplified Scouting" bringing in a number of new illustrations. After the ceremony the Scouts were guests of the Chicago Historical Society, visiting the Lincolniana room as well as several of the other exhibits.

Arrangements had been made in advance with the Thompson Cafeteria, across the street from the museum, to permit the Scouts to eat their lunch in the newly opened cafe. Some boys seemed to enjoy this experience nearly as much as some of the more serious parts of the day's program. The busses brought the Scouts back to their various communities early in the afternoon. E. J. Anderson and Harland Rodin, Field Scout Commissioners were in charge of the pilgrimage.

"The Ship of State" Navigates Without Usual Captain.

The Arlington Heights village board, minus the mayor, held its regular session Monday evening and incidentally established record for early adjournment. A. L. McElhose, as second mate of the ship of state, held the double job of presiding officer and village clerk.

Attorney Thel reported that the Sun Indemnity were inclined to raise their offer to $13,000 in settlement of the municipal funds in the closed bank, provided said company would be entitled to receive any further dividends paid by the receiver.

Resignation of Albert Schock, as police officer was accepted by the board. Alderman Schneberger reported that Mr. Schock had e-idently made arrangements with certain residents of Stonegate and Scarsdale to give such districts special police protection, provided the village appointed him as a special police officer. Mr. Schneberger stated that he was perfectly willing that Schock should take up such work, provided the householders entering into such contract with him realize that the village was perfectly willing to provide police protection to such territory without any cost to them. The alderman will interview residents of that district on the matter.

The village treasurer report the receipt of $1,172.41, representing the 2% fee of the amount of money received by that company from Arlington Heights gas users during the year 1936.

Following the report of the water committee that the dislumped water accounts amounted to $1,040.53, the board following adjournment, met in private session to check such list before it is turned over to the water department for personal collection.

Bills and payroll amounting to $2,028.03 were approved for payment. A resolution was passed directing that the municipal flag be

Bowling Notes

By HERB HAMMERL

Well, I had a chance to watch the proceedings from the sidelines Monday and I noticed the boys had quite a struggle again Monday night. It seems the pins just won't fall. Al Peterson, the only southpaw in the league seems to be having the most trouble. Al shoots a powerful hook ball, but it will not carry the corner pins. There seems to be some sort of a feud on between "Jake" Krause and "Red" Krause. I don't know if there is a bet of some sort or not, but they watch one another's score pretty close.

The hardest working bowler in the league since Jerry Williams quit, is Ed Duenn. He sure pulls the string on every shot. "Snuffy" Carlson came all the way from Chicago to add a 480 series to his average. Looks like no practice Al.

Little Joe of baseball fame seems to be having a lot of trouble getting himself a big series. He gets a good start and then all sorts of things happen to hold his score down. Keep throwing them in there Joe.

On 1 and 2 Krause Market walked away with all three games from Union Tavern. It seems the way "Alphonse" Peter goes, so goes the team.

On 3 and 4 Vail Tavern kept pace with Krause's and took three games from Arlington Elevators.

On 5 and 6 Blatz took the odd game from Park View Tavern and seem to be safely entrenched in 3rd place.

ARLINGTON ALUMNI ROMP OVER JEWEL TEA

C. A. C. Girls Beaten In Opening Game; Weisgerber Stars for Alumni

By T. KOUZMANOFF

The Arlington Heights Alumni and C. A. C. girls basketball teams split a twin bill with the Jewel Tea Company of Barrington on the local high school floor last Saturday night, Feb. 13, the Alumni scoring a top-heavy 51-23 triumph in the feature game, while Charley O'Hagen's girls dropped the opener 26-9.

Feature Game Rough

The men's battle was one of the roughest games ever played under the guise of basketball—the goal posts being the only things missing to make it appear like a football game, making Referee "Buddy" McKaig's assignment a tough one.

Weisgerber of Arlington took the scoring honors with seven baskets and two free throws for a sixteen point sum. Pingel and Koppin also starred for the locals both on offense and defense.

Gerbois's fast driving offense made him a standout for the visitors. Kuhlman was handicapped on the offense—being unable to rise from the floor with an Arlington man hanging on each of his arms.

Bolte Leads Attack on C. A. C's. Playing for her employers, Lois Bolte's fine play was a big factor in the 26-9 defeat of her C. A. C. teammates in the curtain-raiser. Behrens of the Jewels was high scorer with eight buckets and a charity toss for seventeen points.

Kostning, Bunn, Geiske and Hauptl put what little spark there was in the Arlington attack.

The next home stand of the two local squads will be on Saturday night, February 27, against the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. fives of Wheaton, Ill.

Leyden Beats Arlington Out Of Second Place

Leyden staged one of the most vicious rallies in the history of the Northwest Conference to come from behind to beat Arlington out of second place last Friday 29-27. The victory was off to a flying start and at the end of the first quarter led 16-4. At the half the score was 21-11. At the three quarter mark and for two minutes afterwards, the score was 25-14 with Arlington still out in front. With six minutes, only remaining, Leyden dug in, threw caution to the winds and staged a rally as brilliant as has been seen in many a day.

Arlington in the meantime put on a first class number one fold-up got rattled, scared and helpless and let Leyden's fighting spirit run over them, around them and thru them to win in the final breath.

The second half started out with Arlington still in command. But as Leyden began to fight the tempo of the game gradually mounted until the last five minutes were a hysterical, frenzied melee, with which the two officials were unable to cope.

Zuperku and Nelson, were the battling fools for Leyden who collected most of their last quarter points, excepting for the last quarter Weisgerber was the outstanding player on the floor.

BENSENVILLE LIGHTS CONTINUE VICTORIES, HEAVIES LOSE

By T. KOUZMANOFF

No. 9 Is Antioch, 26-4; Heavies Swamped 54 to 25.

Bensenville's undefeated lightweights chalked up their ninth consecutive conference victory of the season last Friday night, Feb. 12, defeating Antioch 26-4 on the latter's court. Jack Escoria with four baskets and a free throw, and Hills with three buckets were high point men for the victors. Hawkins dropped three from the free throw line for three of Antioch's four point total.

From the safety of its 18-0 half time score, Bensenville coasted through the second half with the regulars relegated to bench duty for the greater part of the period. Every man on Johnson's squad entered the game.

Antioch Held Scoreless 'Til Third Quarter

Displaying its finest exhibition of basketball of the season, the Bison lights unleashed a whirlwind first half attack to pile up an 18-0 lead with Escoria, G. Kouzmanoff and Hills collaborating in the scoring department while Baumgartner and Rapin played stellar roles on defense.

The losers held scoreless from the floor, dented the debit side of the scoring ledger for the first time in the middle of the third quarter on a free toss.

Antioch Blasts Heavies

Buried under a powerful second-half scoring avalanche of fifteen baskets and eight free throws after trailing by 16-9 at half time, Coach Johnson's victory-hungry heavies were thwarted in their bid for a win by a 54-25 final score. G. Larson and Schneider supervised Antioch's scoring onslaught with twelve and eleven points apiece. Davis led the losers, dropping four from the floor in the second half.

With three minutes left to play and three men lost by the four-fold route, Bensenville had but four men on the floor. A fourth player went out on fouls a minute later, leaving Bensenville playing with three men. Antioch's coach, however, very sportsmanlike, relieved the situation by withdrawing two of his players from the floor to make things even.

to rise from the defeat of the previous week, every member of the squad fought to turn in a smashing victory. Distribution of scoring from one end of the line-up to the other showed how thoroughly team spirit prevailed. Mueller, O'Hagan, Baxter, and Milligan scored thirty-five points. Mayerck, usually leading scorer, fed the ball beautifully and was the key figure in a fine defense. The Arlington score by quarters was 11, 9, 16, 11. With the score at 41-17, a reserve team took up the duties for the remaining five minutes and almost reached the fifty mark. The team's percentage on shots was thirty-eight. The high point was the third quarter, with seven baskets scored in fourteen attempts.

THE CHATTER BOX

By TOMMY KOUZMANOFF
THIS IS YOUR COLUMN
HELP! HELP!

Still smarting from their defeat at the hands of the Leyden Eagles the league-leading Lake Forest heavies bounded back in a revengeful mood last Friday night to smother a 60-18 shellacking on Warren.

Bensenville and Libertyville are still running a dead heat for first place in the lightweight race with perfect records of nine straight victories apiece. The bubble broke Tuesday night on which night the entire conference was in action with Libertyville and Bensenville fighting it out on the latter's floor.

This department has witnessed basketball games that through lax officiating have gone beyond control of the officials, but last Friday night Arlington-Leyden heavyweight tussle... which it was in every sense of the word... was by far the worst. In the final quarter Wedemeyer, Leyden's star floor guard, was so enraged at one of the decisions that he fired the ball at the umpire... the outburst spelled fias for Wedemeyer, but he had committed his fourth personal foul anyway. A few minutes later Long, Leyden's center, intentionally wrapped his arms around "Duke" Koppin, Arlington's captain, picked him up off of the floor and wrestled him until he had floored him.

Having seen Watson-coached athletes in action before... and even played against them... we know that they are taught to be gentlemen at all times... Had the two men handling the game been on the job the game would have never reached such stages.

Ray Hayes, coach of Arlington's Green Tornadoes, is convinced that a shooting average of 13% does not win basketball games... His lightweights made but 13% of their shots against Bensenville two weeks ago and were kicked 24-19. Making good on twenty shots out of fifty-two tries from the floor against Leyden last Friday night for a 38% average netted his five a 47-18 victory.

With due apologies to Ripley we have a "Believe It Or Not"... Last week's Bensenville-Antioch heavyweight game finished up with three players on each side... With two minutes to go, Bensenville, with a seven men squad, lost its fourth man on fouls leaving but three men eligible for action. Antioch's coach, however, displayed a fine bit of sportsmanship when he took two of his players off of the floor to square things up.

The Arlington Alumni and O'Hagen's C. A. C. girls quintet are working hard to get in shape for the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. basketball tossers from Wheaton who will invade the local high school gym for a pair of games Saturday night, February 27, the first game starting at 8 p. m.

With six games of the second half gone the Des Plaines Lutheran cage cagers are still on top with an unblemished record... Arlington Heights is but a game behind with five wins and one loss.

Hinrichs of Palatine leads the individual scorers with eighty-two points in seven games... Art Meyer, Glenview's ace, has the best average, however... seventy-two points in four games for a mark of eighteen per game.

Friday night's games wind up the current Northwest Conference race... and also the finish of the present schedule arrangement... A "New Deal" schedule, has been proposed for next Fall... The conference will be divided into possibly three districts on a geographical basis.

By the middle of next week the Sub-District tournaments will be under way to be followed by the Regional, March 3rd to the 6th... In a few weeks the 1936-37 high school basketball season will have become history.

NORTHWEST LUTHERAN SUBURBAN BASKET BALL LEAGUE GAMES

Itasca 34, Parge Ridge 25

Although Park Ridge did lead Itasca 5-4 at the end of the first quarter, the gray-clad Itascans easily pulled away for the remainder of their scheduled game Saturday night, and threatened only once when Park Ridge started a lightning-like spurt to come within a basket of a tie score, managed to save the game by a well-taken time-out and then won easily by a 34-25 score. Lacking two regulars, Park Ridge showed up remarkably and kept the game from being entirely one-sided, though they scored only three baskets the first quarter, three the second, and one in the third. They could have come somewhat closer had they tried harder at the free throw line, perhaps, for they scored on only five of fourteen tries. Itasca's four out of 10 was nothing to write home about, either. Edwin Shaper's points for Itasca and Captain Herman's equal number for Park Ridge lead the rest of the field, though Elmer Mensching gained nine for the winners and Art Rind's four baskets and one single shot made close seconds.

Glenview 40, Palatine 34

Forced to end the game with only four players because two had exceeded the foul limit and no other substitute was handy, Palatine saw their slight 33-32 lead go mid-way in the last quarter, and they found themselves unable to cope with the long passes Glenview used effectively to set the stage for four more points, and lost gallantly 34-40 Sunday afternoon in the curtain-raiser. Art Meyer, captain and star of the Glenview team, scored eleven times from the hardwood before he was chased from the floor because of a disqualifying foul in this year's new rules. The lead was jerked back and forth ten times during the game, each team regaining it after a siege of basket bombardment, but Glenview blasted away the longest and won, with the help of circumstances. Palatine led 9-5 at the first intermission, but trailed badly 14-21 at half time. Coming back with a fine five basket rally they lead again in the third quarter 25-23, but were nosed out just before the third period's close 30-29. Two quick baskets regained the lead and also lost them their player on a particularly fast play, and they got only a single basket before the game ended. Beyer, captain-coach-forward on the losing team, was second only to Meyer with a nineteen point total.

Niles Center Beats Palatine

Palatine came up against the best passing and ball handling team met this season and lost to Niles Center 16-12 in a good game Tuesday. It was a close battle all the way between two strong zone defenses. Niles led 8-7 at the half after the Pirates had a 5-4 margin at the quarter. Niles led 13-10 at the three quarter mark. Etherton proved to be the star of the game and the best ball player Palatine has seen this year.

Arlington Hts. 39, Itasca 32

Spurred on by a couple of substitutes who scored more points in this game than they had all season, Arlington held off the rushing offense of Itasca and led all the way in a rough-and-tumble game that saw several players go on the boards with hard knocks. Holding the Itasca captain to a pair of baskets had a great deal to do with the Heights victory for the doughty center was unable to get away from the "Red Plague" that haunted him and had to be satisfied with free throw chances given by an over-zealous attempt at guarding him. Then, the fact the Itascans played and won a hard game the night before made them just a little more handicapped from the start, though they didn't show it.

Happenstead, regular guard for the grey Itascans, did most of the shooting and scoring for his team, netting six baskets which tied Melvin Laseke of Arlington Heights for game honors. The score by quarters shows pretty well the trend of the game: 26 30-39 Itasca 5 15 22-32 Arlington Heights

Des Plaines Still Shows Way To Lutheran Cage Quintets

(Resume)
After a week-end of four telling games, Des Plaines, by virtue of another win (this time over Roselle) kept up its undefeated string, stretching it to six consecutive games. Arlington Heights, battling to keep in second place, displaced Itasca Sunday by a 39-32 score. Glenview had a tough job beating Palatine Sunday, finally winning 40-34 against a four-man team, due to personal fouls. Itasca held on to third by staying off a lightning-like rally by Park Ridge, who lost 25-34. Palatine finished the season Sunday with a loss, ending with a 500 average. Having won the first half, however, it will play the second half winner on Sunday, March 7, to determine who will enter the district tournament at River Forest College the following week.

MOUNT PROSPECT

If you see workmen cutting a hole in the second floor of the hospital and installing a shiny brass pole, you'll know that Dr. Wolfarth is taking his new enlistment in the Fire Department very seriously. "Doc" likes to be Johnny-on-the-spot when the siren blows and he may find his speed checked a bit in descending from the upper story of his hospital in the conventional manner.

Theta Iota Gamma will hold its meeting Thursday night at the home of Miss Mary Jane Michael. It is rumored that plans for a dance or party are in progress.

Bad luck again descended upon the Winn household. Herbert Winn fell down and broke his arm while playing at school. It seems this family has nothing but one catastrophe after another. Doris Winn just got over an appendicitis operation, and before that all the children in the Winn family had pneumonia.

A party was given in honor of Donald Gadsby last Sunday. All Donald's friends were invited and an uproarious time was had.

A New Church For Mt. Prospect

Services Now Being Held In Country Club

A sizeable group of families of all Protestant denominations have been working for more than a year to perfect plans for a new church to meet the religious and social needs of a growing community.

Finances for a new church building have been arranged. The building—for which Frank Wood, Mt. Prospect architect has already submitted sketches, will consist of a church auditorium seating about 150 persons, a social room of similar size, a pastor's study and a kitchen. A full-time pastor will probably be in the field by the middle of April.

The church will be affiliated with the Baptist denomination under the county commission plan which provides for full-membership, what ever one's denomination.

There are numerous churches in the Chicago area that are operating under this plan and which have proved highly successful.

Church services are being held temporarily in the Country Club each Sunday at 11 o'clock. Sunday school is at 9:45.

Dr. A. M. McDonald, president of the Chicago Baptist Association, will conduct next Sunday's service.

Reverend Samuel G. Beers has accepted a call from the Mount Prospect Community church and began his ministry last Sunday.

Rev. Beers comes to his new work very highly recommended and has made a very favorable impression on those who have met him. He will devote a considerable portion of his time to the work of the church in Mount Prospect and he and his wife expect to establish their home here in the near future.

Under the guidance of Rev. Beers the Community church expects to be able to carry on a larger program and definite plans are being laid for the future.

Reverend Beers is a graduate of Cornell College. After completing a year's training in the Boston University School of Theology, he served as a minister in Wisconsin for five years. He resigned this work to continue his training and for the past three years has been attending the Chicago Theological Seminary. He will receive his doctor's degree in June. While attending the Chicago Theological Seminary he served as the pastor of the Congregational church at Clifton, Ill. Rev. Beers comes to the Community church highly recommended as a pastor, musician and community worker.

Bowling Briefs

Friday Night Major League

The ping fell fast and furious last week as the boys put on the pressure. Several nice totals helped some of them to raise their averages.

Monarch Brewing Co. took possession of first place by taking two from Winkelmenn's Sinclair Service. Bill Rateike took the honors for Monarch with 592, including a 244 game for the buck. Dr. Kirsch was top for Winkelmenn with 579.

Smith's Tavern moved up a notch by taking two from the Harvester Cigars. Radler set two new marks, second high single game with 255 which was also good for the buck and 667 for second high series. Soenckens 579 was high for the Harvester.

The El Reno Cafe put on the best show of the evening. They put together games of 1086, 933 and 881 for 2900. This gives them both high single team game and high series and also gave them three games from Jack Zahn's Tailors. Odds collected on a 254 game while Coash was setting a new individual series mark with 671. Art Mueller's 585 was high for Zahn's. The standings:

W. L. Ave.
Monarch Brewing Co.	35 28 858
Smith's Tavern	34 29 862
Winkelmenn's Sin. Ser.	34 29 860
Jack Zahn Tailors	30 33 864
Harvester Cigars	29 34 850

Last Monday night's results made things more exciting. The leaders, Meeske's were taken down three games by Geisen's Ice. This gives the Recreation Cafe and Paradise Ice Cream teams a chance to get going to try and pull up towards first place, since Meeske's are only two games in the lead. Willard Pohlmann's 506 led Geisen's to take three games from Meeske's. Anchor man, August Bestmann, was the hot shot for the losers with 551, including a high 206 game.

On alleys 3 and 4, we saw Paradise Ice Cream take two games from the Recreation Cafe, leaving them one game behind the Recreation Cafe for second place. Nellie Kellogg led the Paradise team with 544. Joe Corack was close behind with 535. Leona Naggs rolled her first 200 game for the Recreation. You've got the ball work now, Leona. Both Helen Hopper and Wally Gosch were high for the Recreation, each having a 545 series. Helen carried the winning game for the Recreation Cafe with her 204 game.

Ray's Tavern went to work and copped two games from Your Laundry. Hopper led Ray's Tavern with 518, including a high 208 game. R. Mueller helped a lot with her 500 series. C. Funk led Your Laundry with 504. The standings:

W. L.
Meeske's	36 27
Recreation Cafe	34 29
Paradise Ice Cream	33 30

Flag Display on Capitol

During the daytime, when congress is in session, the national flag is displayed over the senate and house of representatives wings. When either of those bodies is not in session, the flag is not displayed over that wing. At night a light in the lantern at the top of the dome of the Capitol indicates that one or both branches are in session.

Tales Of The Street

Why Do They Do It?

We have never been able to figure out just what the C. & N. W. Ry. had in mind when they put locks on the doors of their comfort stations at Palatine and Arlington Heights and didn't put one on the Barrington station. It would seem a reasonable thing to have some sort of a uniform regulation about such things, but evidently they don't have.

For a patron using the comfort stations at Palatine and Arlington to drop a nickel to gain admittance, but up at Barrington there are no locks on the doors and no small change is needed. It would also seem that a public service company like the C. & N. W. gets enough money out of its patrons in the course of a year to warrant in the keeping the doors of its comfort stations open to the public without additional cost. And why they should keep them open in some stations and closed in others has always been a mystery to us.

Not that it's any of our business, but we are just curious as to the "why" for of such action.

Next we will expect to see those stations locked on some trains and open on others.

Assessor Clark Wakes 'Em Up

The announcement last week by County Assessor John S. Clark that 990,000 small personal property tax payers will be dropped from the payers for the 1937 assessments has stirred up a lot of comment pro and con. Of course the 600,000 small personal property owners are highly pleased with the announcement. And there is no doubt but that this group causes the Assessor and the collectors the most trouble and expense.

But the question being asked by a great many property owners is how is the assessor going to draw the line and exempt some tax payers and not others? The fellow who doesn't come within the bracket that is to be dropped is surely going to howl because he has to pay a large tax and the fellow with a small amount pays nothing. There has been several questions as to the legality of the assessors proposed action on the grounds of its legality. Some assert that such action on the part of the assessor is class legislation and cannot be sustained if tested in court. At any rate this action on the part of Assessor Clark is bound to bring into the light the whole problem of personal property taxation which has been a huge joke to the people of this county and particularly to Chicago people for many many years.

Chicago people never have taken the personal property tax seriously as is plainly shown by the record of personal property payments by Chicago people. Time was, when the country towns paid the personal property taxes, almost in full, but in recent years they seem to have learned some of the stunts of their city cousins and the payment of personal property taxes in the country towns is fast growing less each year.

So after all, Assessor Clark's starting action may come to some good in clearing up the muddled situation of personal property taxes.

Two things are certain, the personal property tax as it is administered at present is a farce and some method must be found to relieve real estate from carrying the crushing burden of taxation that it has been required to carry for so long a time.

Personally we have always felt that a comprehensible and strictly applied state income tax was the proper solution, with the complete abolishment of the farcical personal property tax.

Gay Life At Springfield

Now that the committee appointments have been made in the State Legislature at Springfield and all the various majority and minority leaders have been chosen that august body will get down to some real business.

And its bound to be a gay life for the legislators from now until about July 1, with all of the lobbies down at the state capitol demanding that the legislature "do this" or "don't do that," and there are plenty of organizations down there demanding certain legislation that will be of benefit to their particular group.

There will be demands for new taxes for this, that and the other thing and demands that taxes be reduced and some of the burdens be taken off of the taxpayer's shoulders. One of the most persistent organizations demanding things from the legislature is the Illinois Education association formerly known as the Illinois State Teachers association. This group is asking more state funds for the support of the schools and are pointing out the deplorable condition in some school districts. The organization asks much larger state grants for schools and that high schools be included in the state aid to schools. The Education association is building the press continually with their cause with the public.

It is unquestionably true that many schools are in a deplorable condition financially. It is also true that many schools (our local ones included), are in much better shape than they have been for many years.

There are many persons and organizations which fail to see how the state legislature is going to meet the demands of all the people and organizations, who are bombarding the legislature for state funds to do this that and the other thing.

The fact remains that all state financial aid no matter from what source it is raised must, in the final analysis, come from the people.

Whether it be in real estate tax, gasoline tax, motor vehicle tax or a tax on business, liquor or what

District Meet At Palatine Next Week

The State District tournament to be held in the Palatine gym next Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, is shaping up as a very interesting cage menu for the fans of this community in spite of the small number of entries.

Palatine's 16-32 overtime victory at Elia Tuesday places the Pirates in a position as one of the leading contenders for the district title. These teams may meet again in the Saturday night final game and if so should put on the cage classic of the year.

In order to get into the finals Elia must dispose of Hebron on Friday night and the Lake Zurich boys barring an upset, should come through. Palatine in the other bracket, will play either McHenry or Huntley on Friday night depending upon the outcome of the single Thursday night game between these teams from the north. The dope points to McHenry winning on Thursday and pitting their last breaking man for man defensive team against the Pirates.

McHenry is a high scoring team which relies on speed and depends upon a strong offense as the best defense. Palatine's zone will no doubt slow them down, but whether Palatine wins will depend upon accumulating a point total well up in the twenties. No team this season has scored more than 26 points against the Pirates.

The single game Thursday night between McHenry and Huntley will start at 8:00 p. m., and the charge will be twenty-five cents.

The double bill Friday starting at 7:30 p. m., with the Elia-Hebron game and finishing with Palatine versus McHenry or Huntley contest will cost the fans thirty-five cents for adults and twenty-five cents for identified students. The same price will be charged for the finals Saturday night which start at 8 p. m.

The winner of the tournament will receive a championship trophy and the right to meet Harvard in the first round of the regional meet at Crystal Lake, the following week.

"Football Practice"

By ANNE CAMPBELL

WALTERS got a grand excuse when he's late for dinner now. Father says: "Oh, what's the use? Nothing Mother's frowning brow. 'You know fellows have to play! Why were you so late today?' 'Football practice!' Walt will say!

Wish I were as big as he!
When I'm late I get a look
That would slay you! Walt can be late at anything. . . . "Why cook if you're never here?" . . . Pell-neil Walt comes in! Dad says: "Well! Well!"

I am proud of Walter, too.
Just as Mother is, I know.
Though she scolds the whole day through,
Keeping meals annoys her so!
But I notice that a grin Follows Walt when he comes in!
"Football practice?" . . . Hope you win!"

not, it's the public itself that must pay the whole tax bill, so how the state is going to make all the grants that are being demanded of it by the various lobbies at Springfield without loading more taxes on an already overburdened public is almost beyond comprehension.

Payless pay days have already returned to the Chicago school teachers and much more taxation could very conceivably bring a "sit down strike" on the part of the taxpayers that would extend those payless pay days not only to Chicago's school teachers, but to many other branches of the public service throughout the state and counties.

Cardinals Win Two From Antioch

Arlington's Cardinals resumed winning ways again Tuesday night by downing Antioch 38-33 after a thrilling game. Arlington led all the way excepting for two brief pauses. At the middle of the second quarter Antioch forged ahead for a short moment 21-20, but Arlington promptly went ahead again. Then in the last period the "Northmen" managed to tie the Cards 32-32. The tie lasted about 30 seconds. The Cardinals went to the front again and won going away.

The entire Arlington team was playing good ball and but for a little shakiness and uncertainty on their shooting of their set-up shots would have won by a big margin. This unsteadiness seemed to be a hangover from the Leyden game, but the team for the most part, was cool and played heads up ball.

Arlington, 27; Antioch Lights, 14

The Antioch lightweights made a determined fight to give the Green Tornadoes a battle in their half of the evening's entertainment. For about a third of the game they succeeded, but Arlington, using two full teams alternately, held a margin of 13-6 at the end of the half. In the third quarter the victors reached the twenty mark before Antioch scored again. Baxter conducted the scoring end of that drive, but the whole team clicked well in a passing attack. Baxter's nine points were trailed by Richard's six for Arlington. Houghton scored six for Antioch and Groble got four to account for a majority of the tally. Arlington's twenty-six percent on shots was about normal. Antioch hit twenty percent.

Hypnotism was probably used by priests of ancient cults to perform seeming miracles, but the state was not recognized by medical men until the middle of the Eighteenth century, when Franz Mesmer tried to cure patients by putting them into a hypnotic trance. The state is a form of dissociation whereby the brain is no longer able to control the body except at the suggestion of the hypnotist. It is induced by stroking or by gazing fixedly at an object at close range. Once experienced, it is entered into at the command of the hypnotizer. By a similar sharp command the subject is aroused and resumes the normal state.

Scholarship Examinations To Be Held At The Univ. of Chicago

Chicago.—The University of Chicago's annual $10,000 intellectual tournament, in which 44 full or partial prize scholarships were awarded in 1936, will be given this year on Saturday, April 17, simultaneously in seventeen cities throughout the Middle West and the South. All eligible seniors are invited by the University to compete in the examinations.

Competing students will go to the city among the following metropolitan centers that is nearest their homes: Atlanta, Indianapolis, South Bend, Moine, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Duluth, Minneapolis, Kansas City (Missouri), St. Louis, Omaha, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Tulsa, Pittsburgh, and Milwaukee. High school students of the Chicago region will take the examinations at the University on the same day. Results in the latter examination will be announced that night, and results for the centers outside Chicago a few days later.

Students may take 1 hour examinations in any three of the following subjects: English, World History, Mathematics, Latin, German, French, Spanish, Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, and Physics, though one must be chosen from the first seven listed. A plaque will be given to the school whose representatives win the most points.

Arrangements to enter the contest must be made through our principal, Mr. Reusser, and all who intend to participate must have their names sent to the University's office of the Registrar not later than March 15.

This is the 24th annual University of Chicago scholarship competition, the first having been held in 1913. Approximately one thousand high school seniors competed last year.

Etiquette Corner

(To Wear Or Not To Wear)

When dressing for school and school activities, always keep these three rules in order: (1) cleanliness (2) neatness (3) simplicity.

Girls should not wear an excess of cosmetics to the classroom; neither should they wear extremely high heels and fancy party dresses to school. Fresh blouses and easily laundered dresses are most appropriate for school wear. As for the finger nails, either omit the bright polish, or remove it when it begins to chip.

Basketball and football games call for sport attire. Skirts and sweaters, wool dresses and simple oxfords are always proper for a girl. Boys don't need much advice as far as style is concerned, because they usually dress conservatively. However, they should remember to be clean and neat in appearance at all times.

Hu*Per*Du

A ha! and who left the water turned on in the team room? Trying to start a flood in Palatine, are you?

Three cheers for the Juniors. Their play was well executed. And speaking of the play our guess is that a certain member of the cast got his inspiration from a Sophomore girl.

Maybe the chemistry class had a good time making the hydrogen sulphide but the entire school had to suffer at their expense. Phew, what a smell—brings back all memories of rotten eggs, rotten cabbage, etc.

"He who hesitates is lost"—you shorthand students know that, but this saying also pertains to all of the student body. Don't hesitate to save your pennies for your 1937 yearbook.

Hurrah for our outdoor girls. The G. A. A. wanted an archery set so they got out and sold candy, and raised funds enough to purchase it. Where is this all-school party?

Question Box

Question—What habit irritates you most?

Answers:

Thomas Humphreys—A person chewing gum like a cow.

Robert Jensen—A person who thinks a lecture is interesting, but is very dry.

Mervin Fink—People who send me greeting cards, and do not sign their names.

Marvin Peterson—A person who follows me around when I do not want him to.

Owen Nangle—When I am all ready to go to a party, and it is postponed.

Physics

The past few weeks the Physics class has spent in an intense study of electricity by chemical action. This unit has proved very interesting because it affords many practical experiments to be worked out. The experiments include the following: Simple voltaic cell, simple storage battery, electro-plating and the electrolysis of water. These experiments must be done with great care, because as some of the boys have already discovered, acids will eat holes in clothing.

Shop Projects in the Making

The boys in the Manual Arts class are starting on individual and group projects. Henry Pasch, is having lots of fun turning the legs of a Priscilla Sewing Cabinet on the lathes. Burgess Field, next in line, is making a modernistic book case for his study at home. Then comes, Mervin Fink, who is busily engaged in making a desk. The rest of the boys are still trying to square their blocks.

Agriculture Boys See Talking Slides

Last week the Agriculture boys saw talking slides showing the benefits of minerals for farm animals. This type of slide has a talking machine describing and discussing each slide as it is shown. Two periods were spent enjoying the slides.

Tuesday the boys saw slides from the University of Illinois on dairy cows. Scenes from the islands where the various breeds of cows originated and were and are developed were of especial interest.

Thursday the Agricultural boys went to Mr. Howell's place and practiced pruning apple trees, the topic they were studying in class at the time. They pruned three of the trees, each boy doing a little.

Do You Know?

That more work is done on a machine than by the machine?

That the photographer took more pictures for the spotlight yearbook last week Thursday?

That 18 girls are receiving letters from the G. A. A. this spring (if they continue their good work)?

What that odor was that reeked out of the chemistry laboratory?

That the big dictionary in the library is so large it is difficult for some of the students to handle it.

Who the person was who signed the valentines ???

Class Notes

The freshman class are responsible for most of the articles appearing in this edition of the Spotlight. A talk given in Home Room 2 resulted in several new reporters appearing at our staff meeting, and we are glad to receive their contributions.

The freshman English class, which meets in the morning, enjoyed a discussion of how foolish David Copperfield had been at times. This was followed by contributions from the pupils, wherein they listed foolish deeds that they had done (when they were young).

The General Business class have their new work books. Their aim at present is to make these better than the first semester ones which they have completed. At present they are studying life insurance.

The freshmen girls would like to have a Scotch Lassie in the class, to dance the Highland Fling with them.

Alvina Schwolow won a bronze pin for typing 40 words per minute on a fifteen minute test on February 11.

Bank Opening Special

NATIONAL BANK OPENS SATURDAY

ARLINGTON HTS. CITY-WIDE THREE DAY SALE ACCOMPANIES EVENT; STARTS THURSDAY

Community Welcomes Bank Opening

Saturday of this week the Arlington Heights National Bank opens its doors for business. It will be a big day in Arlington's history, for it will mark the beginning of a new period of progress in the life of this community. Any town without a bank is laboring under a severe handicap. That has been a proven fact in the recent history of a countless number of towns which during the past several years, have found themselves without the facilities of a bank.

The lack of a financial institution here is felt by the entire community, people are handicapped in their everyday transactions, business is crippled without local banking facilities and the workings of the entire community are thrown "out of gear."

The opening of the new Arlington Heights National Bank puts a new outlook upon the community life of Arlington Heights. A new business growth is bound to take place. When people are forced to go to some other community to do their banking, they are also bound to do some of their trading in that town. An example of this may be seen any day in our neighboring towns which have a bank when we see people from our home town doing their banking and some of their trading away from home.

The coming of the new bank to Arlington Heights means that our own people who have been forced to go out of town to do their banking will return home. Their business will be kept in Arlington Heights. The farmers who once made this a trading center from miles around, but who have largely been missing from our streets in recent years, will again be brought back to their logical "home town." This means business for the local merchants and the kind of business that is desirable and constant. Not only will there be an incentive for the home town people and the nearby farmers to come "back home," but there will be much business brought to town by people from neighboring communities which have no bank and who come to Arlington to establish banking connections.

It is no wonder that the business men and the general public are enthusiastic about the opening of the new bank and that they are united in extending to the bank a hearty and cordial welcome. The officials of the Arlington Heights National Bank on their part are equally anxious to get the new institution under way and are determined that their insinuation shall take the place in the community which the business interests and the public have designed for it.

The opening of the new bank will be a gala occasion and the bank officials have extended to everyone a cordial and hearty invitation to come and inspect the bank and get acquainted with the bank family.

The opening of the bank is also the opening of a new era of progress and prosperity for Arlington Heights and the surrounding territory.

Several representatives from the various banking supply houses, who are furnishing equipment to the new bank, will be on hand Saturday.

ARTHUR H. FRANZEN
Cashier

Arthur H. Franzen, the cashier of the Arlington Heights National Bank is another of the Franzen family of bankers. He comes to Arlington Heights from the Fox Lake State Bank, where he was cashier of that institution.

Mr. Franzen has had a wide banking experience and is highly thought of in the community from which he comes.

Mr. Franzen was born at Itasca and was educated in the Itasca public schools, Elgin Academy and Lake Forest College. He is married and has two children.

J. G. Wagner, director of the Arlington Heights National Bank, is a Spring Grove, Ill., merchant. He is a director of the bank at Fox Lake, Ill., and became interested in the local bank through his association with the Franzen family, who are also largely interested in the Fox Lake bank.

HERMAN H. FRANZEN
President

The word, "banker" in the fullest meaning of that word can be applied to Herman H. Franzen, of Itasca, who is president of the newly formed Arlington Heights National Bank. He happens to also be president of the Itasca State Bank and leading director in the Roselle and Fox Lake State Banks.

These banks opened immediately after the moratorium which tells more than mere words as to the kind of banking that Mr. Franzen follows. It is no secret that the success of the local efforts to open a bank in Arlington Heights can be attributed to the fact that early in the negotiations, Mr. H. H. Franzen consented to take the helm of the new institution.

Mr. Franzen was born Sept. 3, 1868 on a farm south of Bensenville where his father J. H. Franzen was running a flax mill. He has been mayor of Itasca several years and operated a lumber, feed and coal business there from 1888 to 1899.

day to explain the workings of the several machines used in the operation of the bank.

Miss Lillian Plass, who will be the assistant at the new bank, resides at 212 S. Vail street and has had seven years banking experience with the Bellwood State Bank.

Bank Can Be of Great Service to the Farmers

The Farm Bureau certainly welcomes the development of the new bank in Arlington Heights. There are 386 members in the four townships of Wheeling, Elk Grove, Schaumburg and Palatine, as well as many more in the adjacent townships that have occasion to come often to the office of the organization, who look forward to the convenience occasioned by their ability to contact a bank at such times as they are in Arlington Heights.

Within our urban centers the mention of a factory develops keen interest. They think in terms of the pay rolls and in terms of money spent within the village or city. The agricultural production of the four above named townships undoubtedly runs from $2,000,000.00 to $250,000,000.00 annually. Its equivalent in the neighborhood would require a factory with a considerable sized smoke stack. There should be an equal exchange between the services rendered by the bank to these farmers and the business occasioned for the bank by these farmers.

The bank is a worth while new development that the Farm Bureau welcomes.

Prominent Lion Grooms New Bank

Appreciating the fine work done by the Arlington Heights National Bank in helping to bring a bank to Arlington Heights and knowing that the new bank will be a great asset to Arlington Heights and the surrounding territory, I wish to add my congratulations and appreciation of the fine work of the Lions and the Arlington Heights citizens and business men have done in making possible the Arlington Heights National Bank.

I wish for the new bank every possible success.

M. H. Schreiber, Deputy Dist. Governor, District 1-A., Lions International.

Will Be Open From Morning To Night Next Saturday

The reception at the opening of the Arlington Heights National Bank will be from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. Saturday. This bank opening will not only be a bank opening, but a home-coming as well.

A Year of Effort Was Necessary To Reach Goal

An accurate story of the birth of the Arlington Heights National Bank, contains a lot of human interest material. There could be included in that account a vivid picture of the despair of more than one family threatened with loss of home, in a large part due to the lack of a strong local financial institution; the story of business men who were handicapped through lack of capital and the departure of business to towns that have banks; and the almost futile efforts to overcome a local stagnant business condition.

"It can't happen here," was the belief that many Arlington Heights people were more and more accepting when a new bank was mentioned. Suddenly before a small group of men, Lions club members, seated around a dinner table, a local business man startled the others with, "why not a bank? it can happen here."

A committee was appointed, Carl Ewert, Henry Muller, H. J. Thal and Alfred Jasper. This all happened in January a year ago. That committee spent several months in securing information and the more they investigated the more they realized that their's was a real job.

Suddenly from the neighboring towns of Itasca the suggestion came that, if Arlington Heights people were really ready for a bank, perhaps the Franzens could aid them. The Franzens meant Herman H. Franzen and his sons, who held large interests in three banks all of which had safely ridden the depression and were over 90% liquid.

A survey around Arlington Heights convinced the committee that with the Franzens in the picture, a bank would be possible. The Franzens not only were able to subscribe to substantial blocks of stock, but brought to us what was of even greater importance, a reputation for banking stability that was at once recognized by the Federal Reserve bank, the federal bank examiners and the comptroller of the currency at Washington, all departments of which passed upon the character, business ability and the financial standing of the incorporators and the men selected as officers.

During this period of investigation, the Lions club committee solicited stock subscriptions. The local business men were all keenly aware of the importance of a bank, but enthusiasm alone was not sufficient to accompany the signature upon the dotted line and many of the business men needed their capital in their own business. But there were others who recognizing the investment possibilities as well as the civic need, became stock holders. Yes, there was some outside money admitted in order to hasten the day of fulfillment.

A week, two weeks and even three weeks passed after all of the requirements of the National government had been met before the coveted charter arrived. With its

CARL EWERT
First Vice-President

Mr. Ewert, secretary of the Arlington Heights Lions Club started upon the road to first vice presidency of the National Bank when he made a plea last spring at a meeting of the Lions club for a bank in Arlington Heights. He was so enthusiastic that he was named chairman of the committee that was appointed to investigate the possibilities.

Carl had no hankering to become a bank official, and there were times when even he began to doubt that success would attend their efforts, but when time came to select directors he was so much a part of the "bank picture" it was natural that he be selected to that office.

In everyday life Mr. Ewert is proprietor of the Arlington Bootery. He is the son of J. F. Ewert, Des Plaines contractor; spent his boyhood in the latter city, but is now one of the strongest boosters for the "City of Good Neighbors."

A New Era Dawns For Arlington Heights

With the opening of the Arlington Heights National Bank on Saturday a new era dawns for this community.

Any community without a bank is like a ship without a rudder.

The entire business life of any locality naturally centers about the bank.

There are so many functions which a bank performs in the ordinary course of business that many of them are hardly noticed until they are removed from the life of the people by the closing of the banks.

The people of this community know from experience what it is like to get along without a bank. That is why they welcome with open arms the opening of the new Arlington Heights National Bank.

The new bank means that a new and vital life blood has been injected into the life of this community.

It means better facilities for conducting business and personal affairs. It means more business for Arlington Heights and greater security for the financial affairs of the people.

It means that business which has left Arlington Heights since the closing of the banks several years ago will again return to this community.

It means that new business which has been going to other localities that have had banks will now come to Arlington Heights.

Arlington Heights has gone through the various stages of development. It has grown from a small country town, has passed through the period of the boom days and has grown to be a thriving suburban community.

But there has been one thing sadly lacking these last few years, and that was a bank.

Now the bank has come. And with the coming of the new Arlington Heights National Bank, new vistas of progress and prosperity are opened to the business interests and the people of this community.

With the advent of the new bank, a new era dawns for Arlington Heights.

HUGO J. THAL
Second Vice-President

Attorney Thal, a member of the Lions Club bank committee, has been in charge of the legal formalities attending the procurement of a charter from the government and it was natural that he be selected as one of the directors of the National Bank.

Mr. Thal has offices at 110 S. Dearborn street, Chicago, has been practicing law 28 years, has resided in Arlington Heights over 25 years. He has been village attorney for his home town over 20 years and has served in like capacity for some of the neighboring villages.

arrival, the bank directors felt justified in closing the real estate deal which made the former business block of the Peoples State Bank, the home of the Arlington Heights National Bank.

Then came the installation of fixtures, and the purchase of the equipment and supplies—all needed for that opening day, which is Saturday.

The above is a short story of the birth of Arlington's new bank. The story of its growth and its service to the community are for the future to reveal.

JOY SHOULD REIGN SUPREME

"As a business man of Arlington Heights, I am looking forward to the opening of the new bank on Saturday, Feb. 20. It should be the beginning of a new era for the business men and citizens of Arlington Heights. Optimism and joy should reign supreme in the community for the next few weeks."

"The new bank should be the surest and quickest step to recovery Arlington Heights has had since the depression. Much credit belongs to the committee of citizens that made the bank a reality instead of a dream. I wish the bank, its officers and directors, great success which I know it will have."

of C. C. Griffith Ins. Agency.

Congratulate Arl. Hts. Lions Club On Bank Opening

The appreciation of the splendid work done by the Arlington Heights Lions club in bringing the Arlington Heights National Bank to this community was voiced by the Palatine Lions club in the following letter received by Ernest Malzahn, president of the Arlington Heights Lions club, from president Wm. G. Ost of the Palatine Lions club.

February 16, 1937

Mr. Ernest Malzahn, Pres., Arlington Heights Lions Club, Arlington Heights, Ill.
Dear Lion Malzahn:

Every member of the Palatine Lions club joins me in congratulating your club on the eve of its latest outstanding success—that of organizing a National bank for Arlington Heights.

We have paid close attention to every bit of news coming to our ears these past few months concerning the proposed bank. We were confident that you would succeed, and now publicly voice our happiness at your achievement and wish you Godspeed.

We pay tribute to the Arlington Heights Lions club for its determination to establish a bank, and especially for the pertinacity of Carl Ewert and his bank committee in maintaining faith throughout the struggle.

Although taking, as a club, no active part in the work, we feel a kinship in your efforts, because it is the same Spirit of Lionism that guided you that moves us to give unselfish service in our Village. Some day, we expect to do as much for Palatine as you have already done for Arlington Heights.

Cordially Yours,
Palatine Lions club,
Wm. G. Ost, President.

Byrd Welcomes New Bank

Homer J. Byrd, Supt. of the Dept. of Registration and Education of the State of Illinois, as he hurried for a train for Springfield Monday morning, stopped long enough to say a word of greeting and appreciation on the opening of the new Arlington Heights National Bank.

Mr. Byrd said, "Without a bank no complete return of prosperity is possible for a community for several years."

"With a good substantial bank there are unlimited possibilities in Arlington Heights."

"I am referring not only to business, but to the growth of the community in a residential way."

"Without a bank I would purchase property here only for sentimental reasons. With a substantial bank I would invest for business reasons as well. I extend to the new banking institution my sincere congratulations and every good wish for their prosperity and success."

Palatine Joins In Welcome To New Bank

Neighboring communities which are without a bank are joining with the business interests and public in extending a hearty welcome to the Arlington Heights National Bank. Village President A. R. Godknecht of Palatine, where there has been no bank for several years extended the following greeting:

"Palatine is glad to join her Arlington Heights neighbors in extending a hearty welcome to the Arlington Heights National Bank."

"A sound, substantial bank means much to a community and to all of the surrounding territory and we people of Palatine, are glad to see Arlington Heights secure such an institution."

"There are undoubtedly many of our citizens who will avail themselves of the services of the new bank, at least until such time as we have one of our own."

"Palatine joins in wishing every success to the new bank and bids it welcome to this territory."

"ADOLPH R. GODKNECHT,
"Pres. Palatine Vill. Board"

Bullet-Proof Equipment Protects Bank's Funds

One of the first acts of the board of directors of the new National Bank after the purchase of the bank building, was the decision to install the most modern, efficient bullet-proof equipment that it is possible to obtain as a safeguard to the bank's funds and the employees of the institution.

The directors called in for consultation on bank equipment several protection engineers. From this group they selected Eugene H. Hezner and upon his recommendation and after an investigation, of several bank installations they purchased the "Wise System of Protection" which has been installed.

This protection, which includes magnum proof steel and bullet-proof glass 1 1/2 in. thick will withstand any present known side arm, including the 357 magnum pistol, recently placed on the market, as the most powerful weapon of its type.

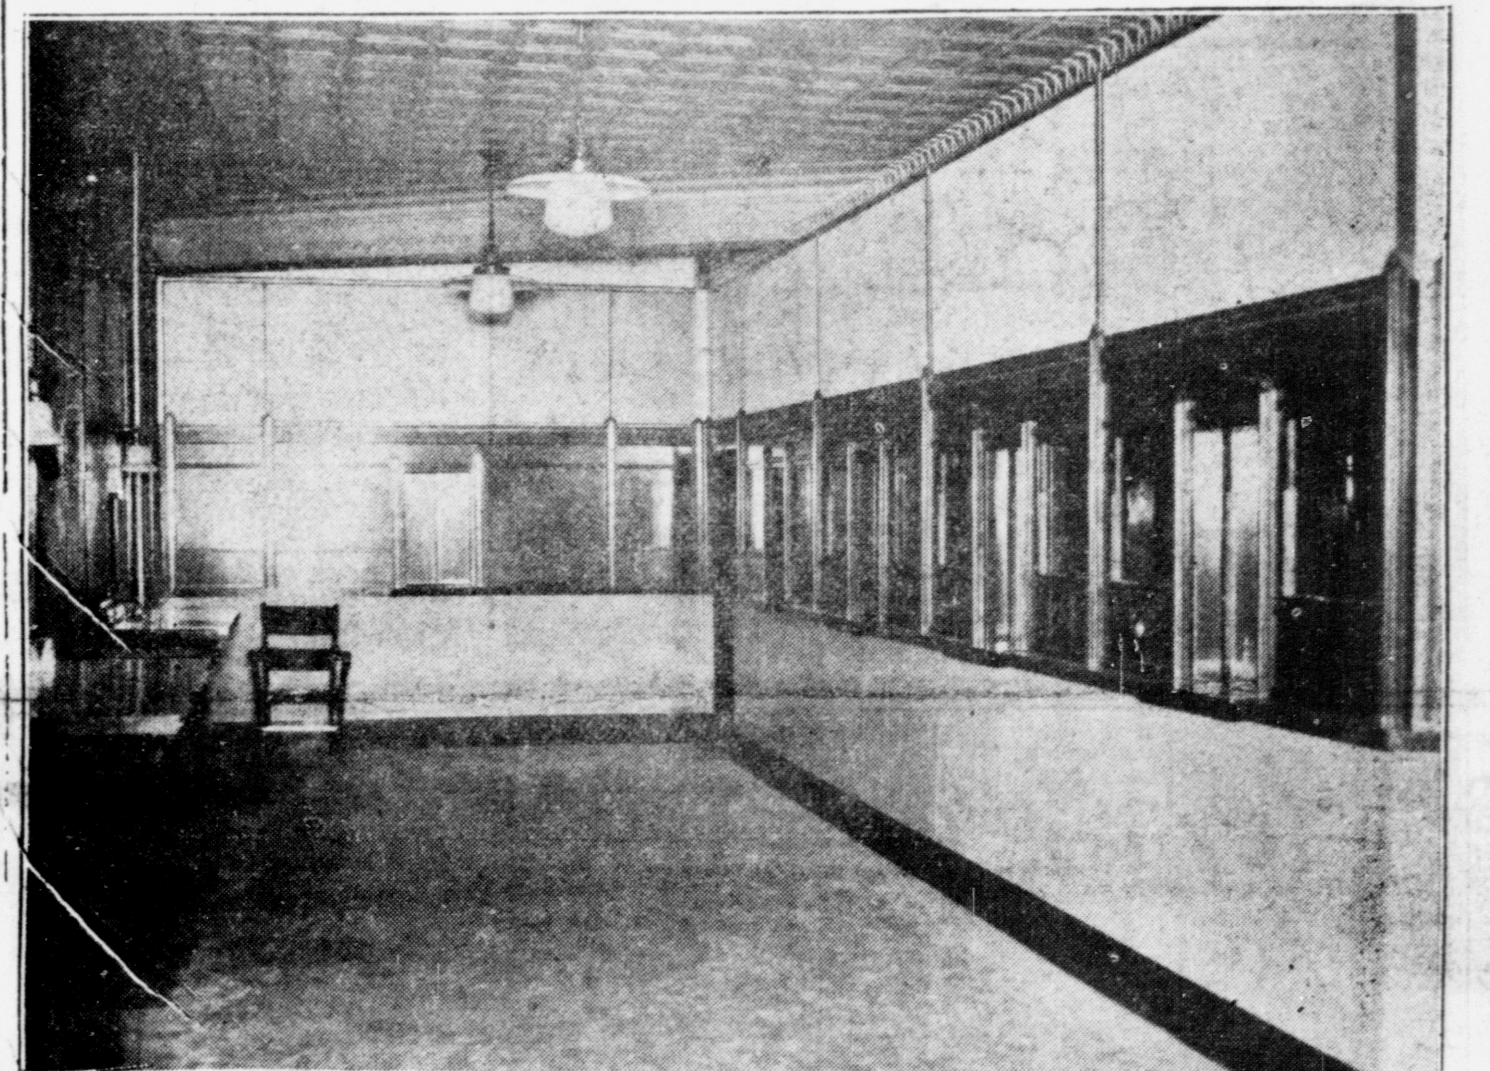

Every piece of glass is acoustically and ventillatingly framed which permits conversation between customer and bank employees and provides adequate ventilation. All doors are electrically controlled.

As an additional safeguard and to guard against kidnapping of cashier or other employees from his own home, the bank is equipped with the "Wise" Kidnap Protection. Bandits can not force an employee to accompany them to the bank sometime during the night, where he would be forced to hand over the funds when the time lock upon the vault permits its opening.

Mr. Hezner has installed bullet proof protection for a number of the banks in this part of the state and is territorial distributor for the J. H. Wise Protection Co. of St. Louis.

Mr. Hezner says, "there are improvements in bank protection the same as in automobiles and I am proud of the fact that Arlington Heights National Bank has one of the latest and most improved types of equipments."

Former Business Man and Bank Official Welcomes New Bank to Arlington Heights

W. Krause, Sr., has large realty interests in Arlington Heights. When asked Monday as to what he thought about the new bank, he said, "I am glad to see the new bank come. It will be a benefit to the business men and to the community, and I am sure the general public and farmers of the surrounding country will be glad to support it."

HENRY L. HAGENBRING
Director

Henry L. Hagenbring has been a business man in the fullest meaning of that word ever since he married—and that was 25 years ago. Starting out in the school supply business, he operated a delicatessen in Austin for a time, then came to Des Plaines where he started a "five and ten" store, which he subsequently sold to Woolworths. He moved to Arlington Heights 14 years ago and in addition to his store, he has operated a bank official, but after completing his common school education, he did have ambitions to be a druggist (free sodas possibly). He soon discovered that to attain a realization of that ambition would entail a great amount of study, but he was all the more determined and he succeeded. For the past 20 years he has been at the Sieburg Drug store.

With the management of that store, he has proven his business ability in many ways and was one of the first approached by the bank committee when organization plans were under consideration.

Bank Victory Dinner Next Tuesday Evening

The Arlington Heights Lions Club will celebrate the opening of the new bank with a "Victory" dinner next Tuesday evening, to which they have invited the general public.

The dinner will be served by the Lutheran ladies at 6:45 o'clock. Tickets at 75c each are on sale by Lions club members.

The speakers will be Rev. Ballock, who has attained a reputation as an interesting talker at various Lions club events. Dan Norman, vice president of the Continental bank will also address the gathering.

C. W. LUSSMAN
Director

When C. W. Lussman, 30 or more years ago watered the cows upon his father's farm, he had no thought of ever becoming a bank official, but after completing his common school education, he did have ambitions to be a druggist (free sodas possibly). He soon discovered that to attain a realization of that ambition would entail a great amount of study, but he was all the more determined and he succeeded. For the past 20 years he has been at the Sieburg Drug store.

With the management of that store, he has proven his business ability in many ways and was one of the first approached by the bank committee when organization plans were under consideration.

Behrens Grooms New Arlington Bank

"Good news has come to the people of Arlington Heights and to this entire North West community, in the announcement of the opening of a new bank."

"As a real estate man, I am deeply interested in the growth and prosperity of this community, and it has been my pride and my duty to the public these many years to do everything in my power to attract business here and to make it easier to attain an abundant measure of prosperity."

"With local banking facilities it will give to the real estate owners, an increase as to value, added prestige, an inducement to prospective purchasers and tenants, and will close that wide gap in financial business which has been sorely needed in this community."

"In welcoming this new bank, I place my knowledge of this village and my experience with its affairs freely at their service. To them, they have my sincerest wishes for success."

—C. M. Behrens.

Village Board Calls Upon All Citizens To Celebrate

Whereas, on Saturday, February 20, the Arlington Heights National Bank will officially open for business.

A large crowd of relatives and friends attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koelper on Thursday, February 11. About 40 relatives gathered at the home for supper at 6:30. The table was tastefully decorated in white. A large bouquet of White carnations and a large wedding cake as a center piece. At 8:30, the wedding party went to Ray's Tavern to join a host of friends, about 150 guests in all. Music was furnished by Gilbert Oldenberg and the Ahren's brothers. About 11 o'clock a few friends made a charivari. Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented to the silver bride and groom.

The bride was becomingly dressed in black and white silk with a rhinestone head band. In the early hours of the morning the happy crowd left wishing Mr. and Mrs. Koelper many more years of wedded life together. THE SENSE OF SIGHT

We have in our body nerves of special sense such as the eyeballs, smelling, hearing, taste and feeling.

Of these the sense of sight is the most important because it lights the field before us to be able to use our other senses. This is known as the nervous system. Each one of our senses has a special nerve that controls the action. Each nerve is working independently of the other, therefore they do not interfere with a nerve that is not in the line of connection. Therefore if you are hearing some sound the nerves of sight do not have that same feeling.

The nerve of the eye is sensitive to light and no other sense. We are enabled to perceive the impression of light by means of a peculiar nerve, situated at the base of the brain, called the optic nerve. This nerve is situated in the back of each eyeball and connects, forming one nerve. Thus the eyes are not so much two distinct organs as one double organ, both eyes are associated in the work of a single function. When a ray of light falls upon the retina or that part of the eye where the picture is printed on to, the impression is carried inward along the fibres of the nerve until it reaches the gray matter. There it becomes a sensation and we consequently perceive the impression of light coming without. We also perceive its variations of intensity and color, whether it be strong or weak, and whether it be blue, yellow, or red. That is the reason we shield our eyes before a strong light, it causes the pupil to become smaller, shutting out the light so as to stop the glaring. Also the opposite when we come into a dark room our pupils let in a lot of light to see clearer. This is something we have no control over, it is involuntary, even unconscious people will have the pupils open and shut. If the optic nerve becomes divided or destroyed by disease, complete blindness is the result.

In order to understand the means by which the sense of sight is exercised in all its perfection, we must have our eyes examined. There are a lot of people who see only with one eye clearly and do not know it until by accident they discover it by covering one eye and then the other. They should have it checked at once, for it may be the means of saving the eye much effected before it is too late. Your eyes are your most precious possession and guard them always.

"A" Club Announce Dance March 6th

Over a period of years, the most outstanding social event of the Arlington Heights high school season has been the dances sponsored by the "A" club. These affairs have always been more than mere dances, they are more of a reunion of all the men who have won their letters in the various sports and consequently have a great deal in common.

The present "A" club has decided to follow the precedent of the years, and to run a real dance and reunion for all the present, past, and future members of the club and friends of the school. The date selected is March 6, 1937.

They have secured the services of Earl Friedrichs and his orchestra for this occasion. This band is well known and liked by all.

This notice is well in advance of the affair and in view of this fact we hope all of our friends, members, etc., will note these facts: The "A" club dance, March 6, 1937, at the high school; the music by Earl Friedrichs band; and the price of admission is only 35c per person.

Remember the date and make your plans to attend the best dance of the whole season, March 6.

Do not worry but make up your mind to do better when you get another chance.

Krause & Kehe Service A Great Aid to Business Life

When over four years ago, Arlington Heights found itself without a bank, the realty firm of Krause & Kehe immediately stepped into the breach and opened a currency exchange, the operations of which increased in volume and value to the community, until a large part of the community and many from neighboring towns came to Krause & Kehe for a large part of their financial services.

This firm filled a great need to the community. It established financial connections and increased the services it offered to the public and had part in retaining in Arlington Heights much of the business of today.

It is but natural that this firm should decide to continue its present service and for which it is so well equipped. Announcement of that fact is made on the front page of the news section.

Many Organizations Urge More State Support of Schools

With five major statewide organizations on record for an increase in the state distributive fund, Mr. R. C. Moore, executive secretary of the Illinois Education Association, was optimistic today over the prospect of favorable action by the legislature.

The Illinois Department of the American Legion, according to Mr. Moore, at their last state meeting, pledged themselves to introduce and support legislation "increasing the state distributive fund to a minimum of $30,000,000, which will provide about $20 per pupil in both elementary and high school." The Illinois State Federation of Labor at their annual meeting in Quincy went on record as recommending "that the state distributive fund be increased to $30,000,000 a year."

The legislative platform of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers includes recommendations for "increased state distributive fund and state support of high schools." Mr. Moore said that in a conference held on January 29, the officers of the Illinois State School Board Association stated that they would actively support a bill providing $30,000,000 a year to be distributed to both elementary and high schools.

The Illinois Education Association also favors an increase in the state distributive fund to approximately $29,779,000. Mr. Moore explained that the 20-50-60 program, requiring that amount will provide a $20 flat grant by the state for each child in average daily attendance in both elementary and high school, and will guarantee in all districts a $50 elementary education and a $60 high school education yearly for each child, based upon a qualifying 75c local educational tax rate. The average amount of state aid per pupil provided by this plan is $25.67, as compared with the national average of $26.12. Mr. Moore pointed out that the high schools in Illinois today are entirely without state aid. Several high schools are facing the problem of closing unless the legislature offers them some aid.

Catechetical instructions on Saturday, February 20, at 9:00 a. m. One of the most difficult tasks of the Christian is to be true in the face of opposition by those near and dear to him. How bitter the cup must have been when the sisters and brothers of Jesus termed Him mad, when His mother misunderstood Him, and friends and neighbors scoffed at Him. How sad the lot of parents who see their children turn away because of the Christian principles of father and mother. Harder still to resist are the well-meant cautions of loved ones urging us to avoid the hardships and dangers of the Christian life. At such times it requires all the fortitude of a God-centered heart and mind to withstand temptation—Taken from the "1937 Pamphlet of Lenten Devotions." All welcome to our services.

Drive To Secure Work for Youths

An intensified campaign to obtain jobs in private industry for 668 youths in Cook county and approximately 10,000 others at present on National Youth Administration project payrolls in Illinois, has been announced by C. Myers Bardine, NYA assistant state director in charge of junior placement and vocational guidance.

The present program of part-time employment, providing work experience and pocket money with which to stalk elusive jobs, will be continued up until June 30, Mr. Bardine said, but the program will be broadened to include state-wide scientific coaching in job hunting and a closer cooperation with the Illinois State Employment Service, which, operating throughout the state, registers, tests and places youths in private industry.

"Under the present plan young men and girls working on NYA projects put in a total of forty-four hours per month, for which service they receive a remuneration of from $14 to $25," Mr. Bardine explained. "They are engaged in tasks calculated to give them work experience."

"These NYA youths will be required in the future to devote a certain part of their leisure time in seeking jobs in private industry. In addition, every effort will be made through the cooperation of the ISES to place the youths in work for which they have an aptitude. As a further aid to job seeking youths, job-information classes, conducted in Chicago, Marietta and Springfield, provide opportunity for instruction on educational requirements for given jobs, employment security facts, union requirements and other pertinent information dealing with employment in the trades and professions."

Back In 1904

Back in the old days before the automobile and paved roads had changed the course of living in the country, wood cutting bees and sleigh rides furnished a lot of fun and excitement. Some news items of the various communities served by this paper in those good old days and showing the activities of some of the people still well remembered in the "old home towns" are given herewith.

Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights Lodge Mystic Workers of the World held their regular meeting Tuesday evening, February 16. After the meeting they spent about an hour playing games such as Carrom and Pit.

Say young man you will soon buy a new suit of clothes. It will pay you to call on J. H. Lorenzen first. If you don't see what you want in his large stock, he will give you an order on the largest wholesale clothing house in Chicago. He can under-sell the city retailers because his expenses, clerk hire, rent, etc., are much less. Call and be convinced of these facts.

Dr. Richard D. Harlan, president of Lake Forest College, stands for a patriotism shown by deeds rather than proclaimed by words. (In these vital times we could do with some more of these kind of men).

Ed. Busse and his nephew, Willie F., started Sunday to visit his brother-in-law, Henry Redeker, in Schaumburg. When near the Sigwalt school house the wind blew so hard their cutter slid off the icy pile and gave them an icy bath in a ditch. Then their horse tried to turn away, but Ed hung on and stopped him after being dragged some distance and considerably bruised. Ed, stopped with his brother George and let the boys continue the trip. He don't claim such heroic treatment is healthy.

News from Springfield

By Bernice T. Van der Vries
Representative, General Assembly
7th Senatorial District

The long awaited committee assignments for members of the House were announced last Tuesday night. For three weeks they were anticipated. As legislation is delayed on all bills except those of great emergency until committees start functioning, the organization of committees is important. Rumors gave the Governor's desire to scrutinize the committee lists as the reason for the delay. The Senate Committees were announced at the opening session.

Representatives from the Seventh District received memberships on fifteen of the thirty-eight committees. All chairmen and vice-chairmen of committees belong to the Democratic party. Representative McGrath is vice-chairman of the Municipalities committee. In the Senate, Senator Baumrucker is chairman of the Committee on Civil Service.

Committee assignments to the three members from the Seventh District in the House are as follows:

Foster — Congressional Apportionment, Industrial Affairs, Insurance, Judiciary, Military Affairs, Public Welfare, Roads and Bridges.

Van der Vries — Congressional Apportionment, Education, Industrial Affairs, Insurance, Municipalities, Public Welfare, Senatorial Apportionment, Waterways.

McGrath — Civil Service, Insurance, Liquor Regulation, Motor Vehicles and Traffic Regulation, Public Utilities and Transportation, Roads and Bridges.

The executive committee met on Wednesday and assigned the bills which have been resting on the Speaker's Table to the proper committees.

There is need for a better system of committee hearings. Often times in the past so many committees will be meeting simultaneously that there cannot be a fair representation of the members nor an adequate presentation and discussion of the measures which are being heard.

Representative McGrath has introduced a bill (H. B. 109) which would prohibit horse racing on Mondays or Tuesdays unless they are legal holidays. The first days receipts of each meet must be paid into an emergency relief fund.

House Bill 120 introduced by Mrs. Van der Vries would permit after a referendum the sale of small tracts of park land not desirable for park purposes.

Representative McGrath has also introduced a bill which would introduce an annual occupation tax upon persons engaged in operating vending, weighing and mechanical game machines. It does not apply to slot machines or other machines now prohibited by law. The tax is $250.00 for the first machine, $150.00 for the second machine and $100.00 for each machine thereafter. The Department of Finance shall administer the act.

Many bills have been introduced in an attempt to clarify the tax difficulties in Cook County. There are also a variety of Drivers License bills. Hearing on these measures in committees will undoubtedly bring out agreed bills.

No bills have been passed in the House.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

We are at the parting of the ways,
Tomorrow and the yesterdays;
Pause not to view the past with sorrow,
Forge on into untried tomorrow;
Heed scriptures warning, do not halt,
Lest looking back you turn to salt;
Yesterday may dark shadows
snead,
Before today's bright sunlight fled;
The spring soon comes in songs of praise.

Look up, forge on with buoyant tread,
And let the dead past bury its
dead.
Poor sad humanity moping over things long past. Our dear ones no more with us here are happy in that new, fair land and would gladly see you remember them so far better off than when here.
I know so many who mope and mourn, looking back into the past.

Each day brings a new chance for brighter, better work to do and powers to win. Make use of your God given powers to work, to win, onward, onward ever.

You know the old poem: "Onward
Onward, Ever, Human Progress
None May Stay." Yes, life is ever onward to higher, better things.
Come day, go day, there's beauty at the end of it. Turn, road, wind road, there's glory in the bend of
it. And so—

Put more cheer into the day,
Wear a smiling face,
Help to drive old gloom away,
Giving joy first place.

Why go wearing somber looks,
So much fear and dread,
Why so seldom cheer books,
Sunny light to spread.

Why not pen a tale of cheer,
All our hearts to reach,
Through its way let there appear,
Thoughts that courage teach.

Put more smiles into each day,
Wear your brightest looks,
Help us drive old gloom away,
Give us cheery books.

Shut in? I'll tell the world. Yes, a severe case of so-called flu and a selfish determination not to share it with others. Born with a powerful ruling impulse to share with others, will mercifully keep in and refrain from sharing this hindering cold with anyone else. Tough, isn't it?

Did you ever notice how your kindly friends want to share their knowledge of the proper way to treat a cold. Yes, a "bad cold" who ever had a good one? One says "I see you have a cold in your chest, you should rub on—o whatever it is,
the broadcaster is exploiting—you should pour it on and rub it in."

Friend number two says, "Got a cold, you should use or take a cold pack, drink cold things and keep out in the air as much as possible."
Number three says, "Got a cold—it seems to be in your head, better take a good sweat, go to bed and don't eat and far as possible don't think. My cold was far worse than yours. It's only a cold and everybody has them."

To tell the truth, we may escape
colds if we keep out of crowds, avoid breathing germs of other's colds, dress warm and breathe pure out door air down to our toes. Yes, deep full breaths and think kind,
pleasant thoughts. My cold is almost gone—how is yours?

Breathes there a man with soul so
dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
"I'll prophesy about the weather,
The worst foretold brings folks
together;
I'll prophesy about our party
in politics I'll build them hearty;
I'll foretell for this generation
Their galloping on to sure damnation;
O yes, I'll build the headlines high
And for a big salary I'll apply."
Big headlines this morning, February 12, that a son was born to the Woodrings. This is the first child in the cabinet since 1930.
Wonder if this answers the reason for wanting to make place for younger men on the Supreme bench? Or is it the longing for some social function to take up the dull hours the wives of congressmen and other officials now are compelled to pass in Washington—
an encouragement to hold stork showers?

Better steer this old pen back to weather, for fear of getting on "old age pensions." Many are trying to scare all the joy out of this glo-

days of sunshine. Do you remember our boys were waiting for snow for their "Dog Derby" had the track laid, all plans and leaders named this was 1927, when a thunder shower the 15th of February drowned their hopes.
Dollar day for us now wins,
All our pennies for tax we've spent
Nothing now in sight, but Lent
And our sins.

Today, February 12 is the birthday of Lincoln. One could but be impressed with the littleness of the men of his time, as pictured in the play and as we know it from his history and memory of his time. Small characters judge only by the outward appearance the shabby clothes and rugged figure. They saw not, nor could they appreciate the nobility, yea, the majesty of mind and soul within.

Who buildeth here a hall of fame,
And who are they who choose its breed,
And who is he who hath the need,
That they should place his name?
Time and the people test true worth.
When truth from sham the mask
hath rent,
And human hearts in all the earth,
Reveal the noblest monument.

Better that men, as years go by,
Should ask why find we not his name in stone,
Then they should question why
This monument to one unknown.
That one whose life is nobly spent
For others asks no hall of fame
He builds his own best monument
And with the immortals sets his name.

Yes, the radio is a miracle of wonders. But good friends and neighbors form a line that carries messages of real joy no radio can carry. Here is Mrs. McWharter telling us to look at once to see a glorious sunset and Mrs. Rau, telling us of that marvelous sun dog radiating all the brilliant hues of the rainbow and our dear, kind neighbor, Mrs. Fricke calling us to listen over radio to those well taught and charmingly singers over the radio. Yes, "blest be the tie that binds" good neighbors in the desire to share all good, pleasing things with each other.

Who is going to give a Valentine party? You know Saint Valentine was a real Saint, yet he sym-pathized with and slyly helped to smuggle messages for the sternly denied unprivileged young people of his flock, to them he was indeed
Good St. Valentine.

Here's what comes of "letting down the bars." Do you remember
"Way back in 1916" when the manufacturers News said "Properly constructed tariff fences would keep all European foragers out of cherished American industrial pastures." Just now note what has happened to the fences.

Anent labor troubles—"Organized workmen and organized industry would be glad to cooperate, but labor leaders would lose their lifelong terms of office and be compelled to go to work if that should happen. Yes, these leaders would be compelled to go to work."—Terrible to contemplate!

In the Manufacturer's News of the same date and in a recent issue,
we read in flaming headlines "War Makes Big Business." This was introducing the World War, and it did. Are we Americans leading blindly on to play that game over?
Whether you are young or old think, think over the signs of the times and beware.

One gets weary, not knowing whether loving efforts do reach the place meant to comfort, cheer or help forgive a personal plea from your old friend Observer.

I would not write a mournful
song,
Nor voice a memory to distress;
Nor sweep the sad harp strings along
In haunting tones of lordliness.

I would not pen a thoughtless word,
To hurt the heart of any friend,
Nor murmur harmful tales once heard.
Faith in another's truth to rend.

I do not sigh for fame supreme,
To raise a cry when I am gone,
If I might only weave a dream
For hope to hang her banners on.

The singer reads the poets word,
And breathes it forth in rapturous strain.
The listening throng in deeply
stirred,
And cries "Again, sing it again."

The poet's lines lie flat and cold
Along an often unread page;
The singer shows the soul, behold,
They crown him king on every stage.

Who ever reads the prophets word,
"For unto us a child is born,"
And feels the depths of being
stirred,
Until its veil some voice has torn.

I have no wish to weave a tale,
A harrowing tale of human woe,
Nor send a venture on the trail
Along which many foolish go.

There is a yearning in my soul
To reach, to touch the human heart,
To joy with it and to console
To feel of all great souls a part.

I wish that I might somehow be
In all its grief and happiness,
A voice through which humanity,
Its deep emotions might express.

I do not sigh for fame supreme,
To raise a cry when I am gone,
If only I might voice a dream,
For hope to hang her banners on.

Local Hunters Invited to Meeting

Duck hunters of the Arlington Heights region, and from throughout northern Illinois are invited to Elgin on Tuesday afternoon, February 23, for a game laws parley at which executives of the United States Biological Survey will be the principal speakers.

Chief aim of the meeting will be to impress upon the Federal Officers the need for an extension of the duck hunting season in this area to include the 60-day period from October 1, to November 30, each year, instead of the November 30-day season now in force.

Elgin Chapter of the Kane County Sportsmen's League, sponsors of the parley—which will begin at 1:30 in the afternoon and will be held at the Masonic Temple—charges that the present Illinois duck hunting season discriminates against the Northern Illinois in favor of hunters down-state.

"Often times sloughs and ponds in this section are frozen over by early November, and there is no
duck hunting left," stated Earl L.
Keeney, President of the Sportsmen's League. "It is to seek a fairer distribution of the season and to afford all hunters of the State an even break, that the Elgin meeting has been called. All sportsmen who question the fairness of the present arrangement as to legal hunting dates, should attend and state their case."

Ira N. Gabrielson, head of the Biological Survey, Washington, D.
C., will be the principal speaker.
An evening Sportsman's Banquet will conclude the program.

Larger Demand For Farms

"Improved prices for farm products and the growing demand for farms by young men and renters, who through fugality have accumulated sufficient savings to give them a safe equity, have made it possible for the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis to break all records this past year in the sale of its farms," Walter L. Rust, president, told the bank's real estate fieldmen at their annual conference here this week.

Mr. Rust reported that during 1936 the bank had sold 1246 farms in Illinois, Missouri and Arkansas, which, unwillingly had become the titleholder, for more than $3,160,000. Both number and value of sales had doubled over the 1935 figures. Thirty-five per cent of the sales value was received in cash.

Excluding transactions which were all cash, purchasers paid slightly over 25 per cent in cash and financed the remaining 75 per cent with 20-year amortized loans. Most of the buyers were farmers wanting additional land, experienced renters who had enough savings to become their own landlords, farm-reared young couples with cash and veterans with farm experience seeking a safe investment for their bonus money.

Continued improvement in farm land values was anticipated by the bank's fieldmen for 1937 along with an even greater demand from active farmers and a correspondingly lesser speculative demand, according to Mr. Rust.

COMING AUCTIONS AND BARGAINS IN USED CARS ON THIS PAGE

Boat and Sports Show Coming

Chicago's eighth annual National Boat and Sports Show will be bigger and better—and also earlier in the season—this year. The famous annual event on mile-long Navy Pier is scheduled for February 28 to March 7, inclusive, according to announcement just made by Hubbard H. (Hub) Erickson of River Forest, perennial manager of the big exposition.

So a touch of summer-time will be given community and suburban sports lovers and out-of-door devotees when springtime is still "just around the corner."

There will be a greater number of exhibitors in the show this year than ever before—at least 150—according to Mr. Erickson, and the colorful and competitive sports events will be numerous.

All the Chicago newspapers have sponsored special sports events. The Tribune will conduct its annual bait and fly contests for men, women and children; the Evening American will have its amusing and skillful horseshoe pitching contest; the Daily News, in conjunction with the Illinois Rifle Association, will sponsor rifle and pistol shooting; the Herald and Examiner will back Chicago-wide competition among Junior Birdmen in outlining scale models of airplanes; and the Daily Times will have a golf ball driving contest. The Journal of Commerce will issue its usual special edition devoted to activities at the show.

Suburban residents always enter these competitions in great numbers and are always among the prize winners. Harvey seems to produce skilled horseshoe pitchers, Oerwyn star casters, and Blue Island crack pistol shots.

The Buda Company of Harvey will be among the exhibitors.

The show will have a number of special days during the week. The first day, Sunday, February 28, will be known as "Hunters Day." The department of conservation of the State of Illinois and Governor Henry Horner are cooperating to show an unusually attractive exhibit with live wild turkeys, pheasants, quail, prairie chicken, partridge and other native fowl on display.

A feature of the Illinois Day celebration, to be attended by leading state officials, will be the serving of crow sandwiches. The state department of conservation carries on an annual war against crows to aid farmers and has discovered that crow meat is a very attractive food. Come and taste it.

Later in the week there will be Wisconsin Day, Minnesota Day, Yachtsmen's Day, Aviation Day, and other special days.

Never before have there been so many boat exhibitors as will be seen at the show this year. More than a score of builders will display their latest sleek models. Sail boats, cruisers, speed boats, cabin cruisers, dinghies and row boats will all be on display for sea-loving folks.

Special entertainment for all, including a variety that will attract and please children, will be given every afternoon and evening.
